The company received approximately $1.8M in new environmental products sales with deliveries expected over the next twelve months for new projects in South and East Asia. The company also received approximately $1.2M in new electronics products orders for a diverse set of existing European customers in wearable, medical, and industrial markets with deliveries expected over the next twelve months.

Cemtrex's CEO, Saagar Govil, commented, "I am pleased to see our team obtaining new orders despite recent uncertainty in financial markets. Our existing businesses are seeing continued demand with new orders feeding into a healthy backlog. This combined with our previously announced pending acquisition gives us confidence that our fiscal 2016 will be another positive year for Cemtrex."
