Strategic Environmental & Energy Resources, Inc. Announces $799,000 Contract for an Installation of Its OdorFilter(TM) System at a Large Asphalt Handling Facility

GOLDEN, CO -- (Marketwired) -- 07/01/14 -- Strategic Environmental & Energy Resources, Inc. (SEER) (OTCQB: SENR), a provider of next-generation clean technologies, renewable fuel and waste management innovations, today announced its MV Technologies ("MV") subsidiary was just awarded a $799,000 contract for an installation of its OdorFilter™ System to control process gases at a large asphalt handling facility in the western U.S. "This contract represents another instance of a large, legacy customer coming back to MV for support and an expanded solution," said J. John Combs, the chairman and CEO of SEER.

MV's OdorFilter™ technology is an innovative combination of both chemical and biological reactions as well as other integrated and proprietary engineered elements to provide a highly effective solution to the complex issues being addressed by the asphalt and other industries.

"Handling gas streams with ever changing mixes of harmful and malodorous gases such as H<sub>2</sub>S is a real challenge for many industries. MV has been providing practical and cost-effective solutions helping clients meet these challenges for more than a decade and we are pleased to have the performance of our technologies reaffirmed by this legacy client," Combs said.
