- Acquisition Expected to Benefit Funeral Home Customers by Combining the Capabilities and Offerings of Matthews and Aurora.
- Transaction Purchase Price is $214 Million; Aurora's 2014 Revenues Were $142 Million With Adjusted EBITDA of Approximately $21 Million.
- Combination Expected to Achieve $15 to $20 Million in Annual Cost Synergies.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 09, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Matthews International Corporation (Nasdaq:MATW) ("Matthews" or the "Company") today announced that the Company has signed a definitive agreement to acquire Aurora Casket Company ("Aurora") from Kohlberg & Company. Aurora is a well-respected manufacturer and distributor of caskets and other products to funeral homes across the United States. In the year ended December 31, 2014, Aurora's revenues were $142 million with adjusted EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) of approximately $21 million.

Under the terms of the transaction, Matthews will purchase Aurora's stock for $214 million in cash on a debt-free basis subject to a working capital adjustment. Additional consideration of $10 million is payable contingent upon the achievement of a specified increased level of adjusted EBITDA for the last full twelve (12) months prior to the closing. The combination is ultimately expected to achieve $15 to $20 million in annual cost synergies. The transaction is expected to close in the quarter ending September 30, 2015, subject to the receipt of regulatory approvals.

Matthews plans to integrate Aurora within its existing Memorialization Segment, which is a leading total solutions provider to the funeral and cemetery industries. The Matthews Funeral Home Products operations will be combined with Aurora to form Matthews Aurora Funeral Solutions.

Matthews and Aurora share established traditions of providing funeral homes with the highest quality products and outstanding service. The joining of these two industry players will offer their customers a compelling opportunity, bringing together their best products, marketing programs, and services. Customers will continue to receive an extensive casket selection, exemplary delivery service, industry-leading marketing programs and continuity of experienced sales support.

Joseph C. Bartolacci, President and Chief Executive Officer of Matthews, stated, "The Aurora acquisition advances Matthews strategic vision for growth, and we expect it to create significant shareholder value. We expect the integration to generate substantial synergies by eliminating redundant costs without impacting customer service. This will allow us to build even greater capabilities and continue to be competitive in an ever-changing marketplace with a growing number of competitive alternatives.”

Steven D. Gackenbach, Group President for Matthews Memorialization, stated, “Matthews and Aurora share a legacy of deep commitment to serving the funeral industry, and the new Matthews Aurora will be committed to maintaining the exceptional product quality, sales support, customer service and delivery for which both companies are known. We greatly respect the Aurora organization and its heritage, and look forward to uniting our two companies. Matthews and Aurora were both strong independently but together we possess tremendous capabilities to better serve our customers.”

Michael R. Quinn, President and CEO of Aurora stated, “We see tremendous potential in combining Aurora with Matthews International Corporation, forming the most progressive industry supplier committed to helping funeral homes grow and succeed. Our company missions are similar, our geographic footprints are complementary, and we know that the new Matthews Aurora Funeral Solutions will continue Aurora’s tradition of helping to celebrate every life and creating healing moments for families.”
