SiriusXM Presents “Conan O’Brien Needs a Friend” Live at The Fonda Theatre, October 5

Event to feature the Emmy Award-winning comedian and host in conversation with a surprise special guest

LOS ANGELES – September 22, 2025 – SiriusXM announced today that the hit podcast “Conan O’Brien Needs a Friend” will host a live event featuring a surprise special guest at The Fonda Theatre on October 5, sponsored by Ashley and Hyundai.

The live podcast taping will give an audience of fans and SiriusXM subscribers a chance to see Conan and his co-hosts Sona Movsesian and Matt Gourley sit down with a surprise special guest for a wide-ranging interview in the iconic Los Angeles venue. The evening will also feature Conan reuniting with members of his late night band, lead by Jimmy Vivino.

“Conan’s sharp wit, quick-thinking, and one-of-a-kind comedic voice have made him not just an icon in the world of entertainment, but also someone that nearly every interesting person wants to chat with,” said Scott Greenstein, President and Chief Content Officer at SiriusXM. “We’re thrilled to present this exclusive and intimate opportunity for fans to experience his podcast come alive on stage, capturing the same hilarity and spontaneity that have earned Conan such a devoted following.”

The episode will be released exclusively to SiriusXM Podcasts+ subscribers on October 15. Listeners can sign up for access to SiriusXM Podcasts+ directly in Apple Podcasts or on additional podcast apps by visiting siriusxm.com/podcasts-plus-subscription. On October 22, audio of the episode will air on SiriusXM’s Conan O’Brien Radio (ch. 104) and be released widely on podcasts feeds, and the full video will be released on youtube.com/teamcoco.
