SiriusXM Launches “The John Kasich Show,” Spotlighting Honest Conversations About Politics, Faith, and Culture

The former Ohio governor, nine-term congressman, and presidential candidate will host the new weekly program starting May 23

Former Senator Joe Manchin is scheduled as the inaugural guest as the new show aims to bridge the political divide

SiriusXM’s P.O.T.U.S. channel further solidifies its position as the go-to destination for bipartisan political talk

NEW YORK – May 19, 2026 –SiriusXM today announced the launch of The John Kasich Show, a new weekly program on its P.O.T.U.S. channel \(124\) hosted by former Ohio Governor and presidential candidate John Kasich. Premiering on May 23, the program will focus on bridging political divides through thoughtful, solutions-oriented conversations with leaders and thinkers from across the ideological spectrum.

Drawing on his experience as a governor, nine-term congressman, businessman, presidential candidate, author, and analyst, each week Kasich will cut through talking points and ideological spin to deliver context, clarity, and grounded insight. Through fair, honest, and direct conversations about politics, faith, and culture, the program will explore the issues shaping America, why they matter, and how the country can move forward together.

The inaugural episode is scheduled to feature former U.S. Senator Joe Manchin, widely recognized for his bipartisan approach to policymaking. The conversation will set the tone for the series, emphasizing civility, collaboration, and practical solutions.

“There’s too much shouting and not enough listening in our country right now,” said John Kasich. “I’ve always believed in unity over division, personal responsibility, service to others, and the ability of everyday Americans to make a difference. This show is about slowing things down, having honest conversations, and creating a place where people can reflect, find clarity, and focus on what still unites us in a noisy world.”

“The John Kasich Show” will premiere May 23 and air weekly on Saturdays at 11 a.m. – 12 p.m. ET, with replays on Sundays on SiriusXM’s POTUS channel.

Kasich joins a powerful line-up on the P.O.T.U.S. channel – the go-to destination for bipartisan political talk – offering listeners a wide range of perspectives and in-depth analysis from some of the most recognizable voices in media and politics. The channel is home to major names including Stephen A. Smith, Chris Cuomo, Michael Smerconish, Steve Scully, Dan Abrams, Julie Mason, among others, making it a premier platform for balanced, civil discourse.

About John Kasich:

John Kasich has spent much of his life bringing people together, solving big problems, and leaving things a little better than he found them. A former Ohio governor, nine-term congressman, presidential candidate, author, and political analyst, Kasich brings fair, honest, and direct thinking to SiriusXM.
