Leading the Domestic Manufacturing Renaissance: Ascent Industries to Kick Off SOCMA 2025

SCHAUMBURG, Ill.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Ascent Industries Co. (Nasdaq:ACNT)("Ascent" or the "Company"), an industrial company focused on the production of specialty chemicals and industrial tubular products, is set to sponsor and exhibit at the 2025 SOCMA (Society of Chemical Manufacturers and Affiliates) Show in Nashville, Tennessee, from February 19–21.

As an active member of SOCMA, Ascent has the privilege of kicking off the event at Tuesday evening's Welcome Reception, setting the stage for the week's discussions on the future of specialty chemical manufacturing. With increasing demand for localized production, Ascent continues to invest in innovative solutions that enhance supply chain security and advance sustainability initiatives.

"Localizing raw material production has become a critical imperative to mitigate the risk of supply disruptions, advance sustainability objectives, and support the underlying recovery of demand in the U.S.," said Bryan Kitchen, CEO of Ascent Industries Co. "Ascent is positioned to play a significant role in this domestic manufacturing renaissance".

Throughout the event, the Ascent Chemicals team will be available for one-on-one meetings to explore strategic partnerships and discuss how our cost-effective, sustainable, and resilient domestic manufacturing solutions can support your operations.
