Working with the consulting firms under private-label agreements, pan is able to strategically target several growing international markets. Its Consulting Firm Partner Program provides distributors with an online turnkey platform and the high levels of customer service support direct pan customers enjoy, giving them the opportunity to expand their services portfolio and client base.

Based in Belize, fusionHR is a human resources management (HRM) firm that provides organizational tools and people-related solutions across Central America and the Caribbean. The firm's core businesses include recruitment and contingent staffing, occupational assessments, performance management, job analysis/job evaluations, developing compensation and benefits programs, developing employee relations programs, legal compliance advice and human resource development. Already familiar with pan's platform, fusionHR will expand its offerings to bring assessments to a finance- and hospitality-rich client base.

The Hong Kong headquartered, psychology-based HR consulting firm, SteppingStone Consulting, focuses primarily on providing online assessment services to companies in Hong Kong and mainland China, with plans to expand to additional Asian markets. With deep assessment and industrial psychology expertise, SteppingStone Consulting specializes in the recruitment and selection processes, talent management, leadership development, succession planning as well as training, education and certification with the use of assessments.

The Career Compass is a well-established full-service recruiting, selection and development consulting firm headquartered in Nairobi, Kenya and serves corporate, government and educational clients throughout east Africa. The firm's services include psychometric testing, career coaching, e-learning, career planning, job search and career resourcing. Recruiting services are provided through The Career Compass' sister company, Lores Group, also based in Nairobi. Both companies will leverage the pan assessment platform in their service offerings to provide clients with a complete suite of HR-related services encompassing the entire employee recruitment, selection, development and career resourcing life cycle.

Based in South Africa, The TTS-Talent Group is comprised of TTS-Top Talent Solutions and TTS-Talent Technology Solutions. Top Talent Solutions offers talent and assessment strategy consulting for the design and implementation of end-to-end talent solutions, while Talent Technology Solutions leverages integrated and flexible assessment technology to facilitate talent decisions including screening, selection, development, and succession planning. The TTS-Talent Group is dedicated to providing unbiased expertise, quality solutions, speed, efficiency and customer delight.

"By partnering with SteppingStone, fusionHR, The TTS-Talent Group, The Career Compass and Lores Group, we bring pan's proven assessment platform and services to some of the fastest-growing economies in the world," commented Ollie Fowler, Vice President of Sales for pan at TALX. "With the addition of these valued relationships, our global footprint is expanding rapidly to meet client selection and development needs and will continue to do so as more quality international organizations join the Consulting Firm Partner Program."
