Marathon Patent Group Announces That the USPTO Has Denied Unified Patents Inc. Petition for Inter Partes Review of CRFD Research, Inc. '233 Patent

LOS ANGELES, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 05/07/15 -- Marathon Patent Group, Inc. (NASDAQ: MARA) ("Marathon"), a patent licensing company, announced today that on April 30, 2015, the Patent Trial and Appeal Board ("PTAB") of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO") denied a petition for inter partes review ("IPR"), IPR2015-00157, filed by Unified Patents Inc. against Marathon subsidiary CRFD Research, Inc.'s U.S. Patent No. 7,191,233 B2 ("233 Patent").

The PTAB ruled: "We conclude that Petitioner has not demonstrated a reasonable likelihood that at least one of the challenged claims of the '233 patent is unpatentable based on the asserted grounds. Therefore, we do not institute an inter partes review on any of the asserted grounds as to any of the challenged claims."

"We are pleased with the USPTO's decision denying Unified Patents Inc.'s IPR petition," said Doug Croxall, Founder and CEO of Marathon Patent Group. "This ruling, along with those that have proceeded it, continue to demonstrate the value of our proprietary process to assess, value, and acquire high quality patent assets that have the potential of generating meaningful return on investment for both the company and its shareholders."

There remain three pending IPRs related to the '233 Patent. IPR2015-00055, filed by Iron Dome, was instituted with respect to only 8 of the 17 claims included in Iron Dome's IPR petition. The PTAB declined to institute the Iron Dome IPR for several claims asserted in litigation. IPR institution of IPR2015-00259, filed by Netflix, Hulu, and Spotify, and IPR2015-00627, filed by DISH and EchoStar, has yet to be decided.
