

Marathon Digital Holdings Announces Bitcoin Production and Mining Operation Updates for February 2024

- Increased Energized Hash Rate 9% M/M to 28.7 EH/s

- Increased BTC Holdings to 16,930 BTC; Total Cash and BTC of $1.5B as of February 29, 2024

Fort Lauderdale, FL, March 05, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Marathon Digital Holdings, Inc. \(NASDAQ:MARA\) ("Marathon" or "Company"), a leader in supporting and securing the Bitcoin ecosystem, today published unaudited bitcoin ("BTC") production and miner installation updates for February 2024.

Management Commentary

"The operational challenges that commenced in January, continued into February and reduced our operational hash rate and our bitcoin production for the month," said Fred Thiel, Marathon's chairman and CEO. "The Garden City and Ellendale sites, which are operated by Applied Digital and collectively represent approximately 43% of our energized hash rate, experienced unplanned outages due to transformer and transmission line maintenance. Last week, Garden City was re-energized and Ellendale was nearly back to full strength. However, while Garden City is now fully operational, infrastructure issues at Ellendale are still being resolved as capacity at that site is being ramped up.

"Largely due to these maintenance issues, we operated at an average of 61% of our total energized capacity in February. As a result, we produced 833 bitcoin last month. Our team is actively working with our hosting providers to bring sites back to full strength and to make the necessary repairs to mitigate these issues in the future. We will continue to provide updates on our progress as they materialize. While we work through these issues, we increased our hash rate another 9% to 28.7 exahash.

"We have also continued to strengthen our balance sheet by increasing our bitcoin holdings to 16,930 BTC and bringing our combined cash and bitcoin to approximately $1.5 billion. As we look to capitalize on strategic opportunities, we have also begun launching new tools and services for those who are building the future of Bitcoin, including Slipstream and Anduro. While both are in early stages, we are confident that these innovations and others, which we expect to announce later this year, will help differentiate Marathon and add to our position as a leader in converting energy into economic value."

1. Defined as the total amount of block rewards including transaction fees that Marathon earned during the period divided by the total amount of block rewards and transaction fees awarded by the Bitcoin network during the period.
2. Defined as the amount of hash rate that could theoretically be generated if all miners that have been energized are currently in operation including miners that may be temporarily offline. Hash rates are estimates based on the manufacturers' specifications. All figures are rounded.
3. Defined as the average hash rate that was actually generated during the month from all operational miners. All figures are estimates and are rounded.
4. Defined as the sum of energized hash rate (see above) and hash rate that has been installed but not yet energized. Hash rates are estimates based on the manufacturers' specifications. All figures are rounded.
5. These metrics are MaraPool only, do not include the joint ventures.

In February, Marathon increased its operating fleet by 8% to approximately 231,000 Bitcoin miners, theoretically capable of producing approximately 28.7 EH/s, after approximately 16,000 of Marathon's Bitcoin miners (c. 2.0 EH/s) were energized. Hash rate figures are calculated according to the manufacturer's specifications.
