TOUGHBUILT™ Q3 2020 AMAZON GROSS SALES REACHED $2,070,000

Lake Forest , Calif, Nov. 04, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- ToughBuilt Industries, Inc. ("ToughBuilt" or the "Company") (NASDAQ: TBLT; TBLTW) today announced gross sales through its U.S. & Canadian Amazon storefronts for the quarter ended September 30, 2020 were $2,070,000. In addition, gross sales for the 9 months ended September 30, 2020 through its U.S. & Canadian Amazon storefronts were $4,500,000.

Michael Panosian, Chief Executive Officer of ToughBuilt, commented, "The last 9-months have been challenging but extremely rewarding for ToughBuilt and our partners. Not only have we increased sales, we continue to penetrate new geographical markets and support our customers with timely delivery of products. Our launch last year through our Amazon storefront has been a successful business plan that we believe is strategic in many facets, including but not limited to global market exposure for our products.

We maintain a consistent flow of sales from the commercial and private sectors which we believe will be balanced as we continue to utilize the marketing and far-reaching capabilities of Amazon.com."

ABOUT TOUGHBUILT INDUSTRIES, INC.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release contains "forward-looking statements." Such statements may be preceded by the words "intends," "may," "will," "plans," "expects," "anticipates," "projects," "predicts," "estimates," "aims," "believes," "hopes," "potential" or similar words. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, are based on certain assumptions and are subject to various known and unknown risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond the Company's control, and cannot be predicted or quantified and consequently, actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such risks and uncertainties include, without limitation, risks and uncertainties associated with (i) market acceptance of our existing and new products, (ii) delays in bringing products to key markets, (iii) an inability to secure regulatory approvals for the ability to sell our products in certain markets, (iv) intense competition in the industry from much larger, multinational companies, (v) product liability claims, (vi) product malfunctions, (vii) our limited manufacturing capabilities and reliance on subcontractors for assistance, (viii) our efforts to successfully obtain and maintain intellectual property protection covering our products, which may not be successful, (ix) our reliance on single suppliers for certain product components, (x) the fact that we will need to raise additional capital to meet our business requirements in the future and that such capital raising may be costly, dilutive or difficult to obtain and (xi) the fact that we conduct business in multiple foreign jurisdictions, exposing us to foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations, logistical and communications challenges, burdens and costs of compliance with foreign laws and political and economic instability in each jurisdiction. More detailed information about the Company and the risk factors that may affect the realization of forward looking statements is set forth in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), including the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K and its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q. Investors and security holders are urged to read these documents free of charge on the SEC's web site at <http://www.sec.gov>. The Company assumes no obligation to publicly update or revise its forward-looking statements as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
