ToughBuilt Industries Expands European Distribution Footprint Across France Through Large Retail Partners

ToughBuilt Products to be Sold Across 500 Store Fronts in France

LAKE FOREST, Calif., Sept. 23, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- ToughBuilt Industries, Inc. ("ToughBuilt") (NASDAQ: TBLT; TBLTW), today announced that several large home improvement retailers will offer ToughBuilt products in nearly 500 stores across France. ToughBuilt's new retail customers include well-recognized national and multinational chain brands including Toolstation, Setin Group and Gedimat.

Michael Panosian, Chief Executive Officer of ToughBuilt, commented, "ToughBuilt continues to gain market share in Europe, successfully penetrating some of the fastest growing and leading home improvement chains. France is a multibillion-dollar market, representing a significant opportunity for ToughBuilt, which we believe will strengthen our relationships with international retailers and allow us to gain brand recognition with professional contractors and do-it-yourself consumers."

Toolstation, a multinational home improvement chain in France, currently carries 23 ToughBuilt SKUs, which is expected to increase to 50 SKUs by end-of-year. Setin Group, a specialized hardware and tool chain, currently carries 26 best-selling ToughBuilt products. Gedimat, a major national group of independent home improvement retailers, will offer ToughBuilt's entire product catalog and begin stocking ToughBuilt SKUs this October.

ABOUT TOUGHBUILT INDUSTRIES, INC.

ToughBuilt is an advanced product design, manufacturer and distributor with emphasis on innovative products. Currently focused on tools and other accessories for the professional and do-it-yourself construction industries. We market and distribute various home improvement and construction product lines for both the do-it-yourself and professional markets under the TOUGHBUILT brand name, within the global multibillion dollar per year tool market industry. FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release contains “forward-looking statements.” Such statements may be preceded by the words “intends,” “may,” “will,” “plans,” “expects,” “anticipates,” “projects,” “predicts,” “estimates,” “aims,” “believes,” “hopes,” “potential” or similar words. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, are based on certain assumptions and are subject to various known and unknown risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond the Company’s control, and cannot be predicted or quantified and consequently, actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such risks and uncertainties include, without limitation, risks and uncertainties associated with (i) market acceptance of our existing and new products, (ii) delays in bringing products to key markets, (iii) an inability to secure regulatory approvals for the ability to sell our products in certain markets, (iv) intense competition in the industry from much larger, multinational companies, (v) product liability claims, (vi) product malfunctions, (vii) our limited manufacturing capabilities and reliance on subcontractors for assistance, (viii) our efforts to successfully obtain and maintain intellectual property protection covering our products, which may not be successful, (ix) our reliance on single suppliers for certain product components, (x) the fact that we will need to raise additional capital to meet our business requirements in the future and that such capital raising may be costly, dilutive or difficult to obtain and (xi) the fact that we conduct business in multiple foreign jurisdictions, exposing us to foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations, logistical and communications challenges, burdens and costs of compliance with foreign laws and political and economic instability in each jurisdiction. More detailed information about the Company and the risk factors that may affect the realization of forward looking statements is set forth in the Company’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), including the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K and its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q. Investors and security holders are urged to read these documents free of charge on the SEC’s web site at <http://www.sec.gov>. The Company assumes no obligation to publicly update or revise its forward-looking statements as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
