The founder and principal of Real Estate InSync (REI), Butler is an accomplished real estate project and portfolio manager with over 30 years of experience partnering with high-net-worth private, corporate and institutional clients throughout the United States on projects ranging from commercial portfolios to mixed-use facilities and residential developments. Butler's distinguished career prior to founding REI includes service as senior vice president with The St. Joe Company, principal of Boutin Brown Butler Real Estate Services, vice president with New York-based international real estate firm, Landauer Associates, Inc., and real estate analyst and project administrator with Raymond-Kaiser Engineers, Inc. in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Among Butler's credentials is the prestigious designation of Counselor of Real Estate, which signifies professional achievement as a trusted real estate advisor, as acknowledged by his peers in the American Society of Real Estate Counselors. Butler is past chairman of the Economic Development Council of Tallahassee/Leon County, Greater Tallahassee Chamber of Commerce, Tallahassee Downtown Redevelopment Commission and the National Biletnikoff Award in college football, and currently serves as chairman for the Florida State University Center for Real Estate Education & Research and the Urban Land Institute, Capital Region. He has also served as vice chairman of the Leon County Planning Commission.

A native of Tallahassee, Fla., Butler holds a Bachelor of Science in Real Estate from Florida State University and is a graduate of Leadership Florida and Leadership Tallahassee.
