JeAnna Parker Joins Andersen as a Managing Director in Dallas

SAN FRANCISCO--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Andersen announces the addition of Managing Director JeAnna Parker to the Commercial practice in Dallas. JeAnna joins Andersen with more than 28 years of public accounting experience providing tax consulting and compliance services to multinational companies.

“JeAnna’s experience in both federal and international tax is well-aligned to our practice in Dallas and the needs of our clients,” said Brian Untermeyer, Office Managing Director in Dallas.

Prior to joining Andersen, JeAnna was a Tax Partner with PwC for 18 years. She has extensive experience in both the federal and international aspects of accounting for income taxes (ASC 740), including both acquisition and disposition tax accounting. JeAnna’s experience has also centered around helping companies with their global compliance needs and process, and assisting companies with worldwide structuring, cross border financing, planning for mergers and acquisitions and federal and state tax opportunities.

Dan DePaoli, U.S. Country Managing Director, commented, “JeAnna’s technical expertise coupled with her deep industry experience and international tax background will support the growth of our Commercial practice both in Dallas and globally.”

JeAnna received her Bachelor of Business Administration and Masters in Professional Accounting (MPA) from the University of Texas at Austin, McCombs School of Business.
