Andersen Welcomes Managing Director Amber Salotto to US National Tax Practice

SAN FRANCISCO--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Andersen welcomes Managing Director Amber Salotto to the US National Tax Practice and the Washington, D.C. office. Amber has more than 19 years of experience in law and public accounting focusing on complex tax and regulatory matters.

Amber served as an attorney advisor for the U.S. Department of the Treasury where she was responsible for regulatory and legislative matters related to the taxation of compensation and benefits, including cryptocurrency, tax law changes under TCJA, SECURE Act, and various economic stimulus and COVID-19 relief bills.

“Amber’s background in law and experience with the Treasury will further enhance our compensation and benefits practice. She is another ‘best-in-class’ addition to our team,” said Dan DePaoli, U.S. Country Managing Director.

Previously, Amber was a part of Deloitte's Washington National Tax compensation & benefits practice where she specialized in compliance related to compensation arrangements including executive compensation, qualified plans, mergers and acquisitions and cryptocurrency as compensation.

Ellen MacNeil, Managing Director of US National Tax for Andersen, commented, “Amber’s deep experience will serve Andersen’s clients well. She is another terrific addition to our team.”

Amber graduated from New York University Tisch School of the Arts with a BA and received a JD from Drexel University Law School.
