Christian brings a wealth of digital marketing and operational experience to Salem with his work for Marketron where he served in an executive leadership position driving business development. Prior to that, Christian had over a decade of building teams and driving revenue and operational growth for Gannett's Local IQ and its predecessor, ReachLocal where he oversaw the growth and management of many local and regional offices.

Jon Latzer, Vice President, General Manager of Salem Surround, said, "Christian Kligora is a generational find and will help Salem Surround achieve both revenue growth and help with operational efficiencies. We are excited to have him join our expanding team while leading our Western Region to new heights of success."

"I'm excited to join the fantastic team at Salem Media," said Christian Kligora. "Joining Salem represents a unique opportunity to contribute to a media landscape that values integrity, innovation, and impact. I am eager to partner with our linear/digital sales teams to explore innovative ways to connect with our audience."

Christian is based in Denver where he lives with his wife Angela.
