NEW YORK, June 30, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- SiriusXM announced today it will broadcast an extensive variety of 4th of July programming celebrating American Independence across multiple commercial-free music, premier sports, and exclusive comedy, entertainment and talk channels.

Celebrating the July 25th theatrical release of "The Fluffy Movie," comedian Gabriel Iglesias, A.K.A. "Fluffy," will take over Raw Dog SiriusXM Comedy Hits on July 4th weekend with his buddy and fellow comedian Martin Moreno for a comical discussion on life, liberty and the pursuit of great comedy. "The Fluffy Takeover Weekend" will feature laughs from Fluffy's collection of material, as well as comedy bits from many of his favorite comedians including Paul Rodriguez, Robin Williams, Ian Bagg, Bill Burr, Pablo Francisco, and many more.

SiriusXM will broadcast "Aspen Ideas Radio," featuring a conversation with Hillary Clinton and Walter Isaacson, CEO of the Aspen Institute, from the 2014 Aspen Ideas Festival. The conversation airs Friday, July 4th, at 9:00 pm ET. In addition, all weekend long SiriusXM listeners will hear the most interesting thinkers and leaders from around the world as they discuss the issues and ideas that inspire them, including interviews and panels with Tony Blair, Michael Eisner, Katie Couric and more. "Aspen Ideas Radio," hosted by Pete Dominick, will also air numerous panels moderated by Pete and SiriusXM host Perri Peltz at this year's Aspen Ideas Festival.
