General Employment Acquires Dallas IT & Professional Staffing Solutions Company Paladin Consulting, Inc.

Accretive Acquisition Adds EBITDA & Revenue Plus MSP, VMS & RPO Service Capability in the Information Technology and Professional Staffing Services Sector & Expands Geographic Reach in Texas, Washington DC Metro and Nationwide

NAPERVILLE, IL -- (Marketwired) -- 12/31/15 -- General Employment Enterprises, Inc. (NYSE MKT: JOB) ("the Company" or "General Employment"), a provider of specialty staffing services and solutions, today announced that it has acquired Dallas-based information technology and professional staffing company Paladin Consulting, Inc. ("Paladin"), effective January 1, 2016. The acquisition is expected to be accretive to earnings per share and anticipated to generate solid earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) and estimated projected revenue in the range of $16 million to $18 million for calendar 2016. Under the terms of the sale and purchase agreement, General Employment acquired 100 percent (100%) of the Paladin common stock for consideration including cash, stock, seller financing and contingent consideration ("earn out"). The Company, in combination with Paladin and the other completed acquisitions to date estimates that combined projected pro forma revenue for the calendar year 2016 is anticipated to reach or exceed approximately $90 million, more than double the reported revenue for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2015.

Paladin Acquisition Adds RPO, MSP & VMS Support Capabilities to Enhance and Broaden General Employment's Service Offerings

Paladin Lines of Staffing Services include the following: Information Technology (IT), Accounting and Finance, Engineering, Office Support and Government Services - TS Cleared. Its Workforce Solutions includes the provision of Resource Process Outsourcing (RPO) and expertise in working with Managed Service Providers (MSP) and Vendor Management Systems (VMS) such as Pontoon, Beeline and Fieldglass. Paladin puts tech talent, experienced engineers and business pros in a position to succeed through a deep vetting of clients and opportunities to ensure that their needs align with the skills of the professionals. In the IT area, Paladin has expertise in placing high demand skilled professionals in .Net, SharePoint, ERP, software engineering, database support (Microsoft SQL, Oracle, Sybase & Informix), legacy systems support, network support, data analytics, cyber-security, cloud migration, Java, health IT, big data and mobile applications. In Accounting and Finance, Paladin places controllers, CFO's, mortgage specialists, business analysts and accounting support personnel. Paladin places engineers, QA specialists, PC techs, network engineers, drafting professionals and provides document services and outsourced technical support to major companies.

Paladin Participates Actively in Professional Organizations; Recipient of "Best of Staffing Client Award"

Paladin Acquisition Brings Additional Human Capital Resources to the Company, Increases Its Breadth and Depth of IT Service Offerings and Expands General Employment's Geographic Footprint into the robust Dallas Market and Across the Nation in Key Cities

Through the acquisition of Paladin Consulting, General Employment gains experienced staffing professionals in the bustling business community of Dallas, Texas and surrounding areas. Texas was named number 2 on the list of states with the highest number of Fortune 500 companies, and many of these companies are in Dallas. General Employment will expand its Texas practice through offices in the two largest cities in Texas, Dallas and Houston. The Company has been operating in Houston for years but will have a stronger presence by combining offices and resources in that market and increasing its service offerings and resource delivery capabilities.

Paladin has national service capability providing staffing solutions to many markets including Seattle, Charlotte, Atlanta, Richmond, Framingham (Mass.), and has a satellite office in the Washington D.C. metro area, near the tech hub in Virginia serving that fast growing market. Paladin serves the IT, government and defense space in its D.C. area practice including OEM Project Staffing. Paladin provides staffing services in several expanding industries including Retail Technology; eCommerce and Healthcare Technology. By focusing on these fast growth areas, Paladin is able to generate increased revenue by providing innovative human resource solutions to major large corporate users of staffing services in these specialties.

Management Comments

"I am thrilled to be joining a company with explosive growth potential like General Employment. CEO Derek Dewan has a winning business model and a proven track record of success. Our team looks forward to working with an established staffing and human resource solutions visionary like Derek and repeating the success he achieved building global staffing giant MPS Group and its specialty staffing divisions including Modis," said Enoch Timothy, Chairman of Paladin Consulting.

Chairman and CEO of General Employment, Derek Dewan, commented, "We are pleased to announce this exciting acquisition that will be accretive to earnings. Paladin, led by Chairman Enoch Timothy, exemplifies the ideal professional staffing company providing a vast array of human capital solutions in a number of areas that are in high demand. This acquisition allows the Company to increase its service capability nationwide. In addition, we are fortunate that Enoch Timothy brings a dedicated recruiting and sales team to our Company to help grow our combined organization. The acquisition fits within our strategic growth strategy, which includes expansion of our IT staff augmentation and solutions presence into key markets where there is significant spending for IT staffing services and increasing our professional services capabilities in accounting and engineering. We are growing our Company's geographic footprint to better serve our national clients in more key markets with a broader and deeper breadth of IT and other professional services offerings. We welcome the entire Paladin team to the General Employment family and are pleased that they will assist the Company in accomplishing its goals while advancing their careers."
