Run-Rate Guidance
Assumes CMI Run-Rate of $2.00 - $2.50 / MMBtu

Every $1 / MMBtu Increase in CMI Margin Contributes ~$300 mm to 9 Trains + Stage 3 Guidance

NOLs Nearly Exhausted by Stage 3 Run-Rate in mid-2020s, Thereby Reducing Run-Rate DCF in 9 Trains + Stage 3 Guidance

Note: Numbers may not foot due to rounding. Flange driven by production range of 4.9 - 5.1 MTPA per largescale train, 1.49 MTPA per midscale train, and 4.0 - 5.0 MTPA for Midscale T8-9 expansion + debottlenecking, and marketing margin of $2.00 - $2.50 / MMBtu. Additional assumptions include 80/20 profit-sharing tariff with SPL/CCH projects, $3.00 / MMBtu Henry Hub, and 5.00% interest rates for refinancings. Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA, Distributable Cash Flow, Distributable Cash Flow per Share and Distributable Cash Flow per Unit are non-GAAP measures. A definition of these non-GAAP measures is included in the appendix. We have not made any forecast of net income on a run rate basis, which would be the most directly comparable measure under GAAP, in part because net income includes the impact of derivative transactions, which cannot be determined at this time, and we are unable to reconcile differences between these run rate forecasts and net income.

Based on ~90% of capacity contracted at midpoint of production guidance for “9 Trains + Stage 3 Guidance” and “9 Trains + Stage 3 + Midscale 8 & 9 + Capital Return”.

¹ Change in fair value of commodity and FX derivatives prior to contractual delivery or termination for Nine Months Ended September 30, 2021 was not applicable.

Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA is commonly used as a supplemental financial measure by our management and external users of our consolidated financial statements to assess the financial performance of our assets without regard to financing transactions, capital structures, or historical cost basis. Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA is not intended to represent cash flows from operations or net income as defined by U.S. GAAP and is not necessarily comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies.

We believe Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA provides relevant and useful information to management, investors and other users of our financial information in evaluating the effectiveness of our operating performance in a manner that is consistent with management’s evaluation of financial and operating performance.

Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA is calculated by taking net loss attributable to common stockholders before net income attributable to non-controlling interest, interest expense, net of capitalized interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, and adjusting for the effects of certain non-cash items, other non-operating income or expense items, and items not otherwise predictable or indicative of ongoing operating performance, including the effects of modifications or extinguishments of debt, impairment expense and loss on disposal of assets, changes in the fair value of our commodity and FX derivatives prior to contractual delivery or termination, and non-cash compensation expense. The change in fair value of commodity and FX derivatives is considered in determining Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA given that the timing of recognizing gains and losses on these derivative contracts differs from the recognition of the related item economically hedged. We believe the exclusion of these items enables investors and other users of our financial information to assess our sequential and year-over-year performance and operating trends on a more comparable basis and is consistent with management’s evaluation of financial performance.

Distributable Cash Flow is defined as cash generated from the operations of Cheniere’s and its subsidiaries and adjusted for non-controlling interest. The Distributable Cash Flow of Cheniere’s subsidiaries is calculated by taking the subsidiaries’ EBITDA less interest expense, net of capitalized interest, interest rate derivatives, taxes, maintenance capital expenditures and other non-operating income or expense items, and adjusting for the effect of certain non-cash items and other items not otherwise predictable or indicative of ongoing operating performance, including the effects of modifications or extinguishments of debt, amortization of debt issues, premiums or discounts, changes in fair value of interest rate derivatives, impairment of equity method investment and deferred taxes. Cheniere’s Distributable Cash Flow includes 100% of the Distributable Cash Flow of Cheniere’s wholly-owned subsidiaries. For subsidiaries with non-controlling investors, our share of Distributable Cash Flow is calculated as the Distributable Cash Flow of the subsidiary reduced by the economic interest of the non-controlling investors as if 100% of the Distributable Cash Flow were distributed in order to reflect our ownership interests and our incentive distribution rights, if applicable. The Distributable Cash Flow attributable to non-controlling interest is calculated in the same manner, subject to the exclusions of non-controlling interest as per provisions on Statements of Stockholders’ Equity. This amount may differ from the actual distributions paid to non-controlling investors by the subsidiary for a particular period.

CPIC Distributable Cash Flow is defined as CPIC Adjusted EBITDA adjusted for taxes, maintenance capital expenditures, interest expense net of capitalized interest, interest income, and changes in the fair value and non-recurring settlement of interest rate derivatives.

Distributable Cash Flow per Share and Distributable Cash Flow per Unit are calculated by dividing Distributable Cash Flow by the weighted average number of common shares or units outstanding.

We believe Distributable Cash Flow is a useful performance measure for management, investors and other users of our financial information to evaluate our performance and to measure and estimate our ability of our assets to generate cash earnings after servicing our debt, paying cash taxes and expensing sustaining capital, that could be considered for deployment by our Board of Directors pursuant to our capital allocation plan, such as by way of common stock dividends, stock repurchases, retirement of debt, or expansion capital expenditures.

Distributable Cash Flow is not intended to represent cash flows from operations or net income (loss) as defined by U.S. GAAP and is not necessarily comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies.

Non-GAAP measures have limitations as an analytical tool and should not be considered in isolation or in lieu of an analysis of our results as reported under GAAP and should be evaluated only on a supplementary basis.

Note: We have not made any forecast of net income on a run rate basis, which would be the most directly comparable financial measure under GAAP, in part because net income includes the impact of derivative transactions, which cannot be determined at this time, and we are unable to reconcile differences between run rate Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA and Distributable Cash Flow and income.

1 Capital spending for our business consists primarily of:
   • Maintenance capital expenditures. These expenditures include costs which qualify for capitalization that are required to sustain property, plant and equipment reliability and safety and to address or eliminate other regulatory requirements rather than to generate incremental distributable cash flow; and
   • Expansion capital expenditures. These expenditures are undertaken primarily to generate incremental distributable cash flow and include investment in accretive organic growth, acquisition or construction of additional complimentary assets to grow our business, along with expenditures to enhance the productivity and efficiency of our existing facilities.
