

Professional Diversity Network, Inc. Announces Working Capital Line and Replacement of Two Directors

CHICAGO, July 06, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Professional Diversity Network, Inc. ("PDN") (NASDAQ:IPDN), which operates America's premiere network for professional women, through its www.napw.com platform, as well as several other properties which provide access to employment opportunities for diverse professionals in the United States, announced today that it has closed on a $5MM working capital line in partnership with White Winston Select Asset Funds, LLC; that two of its Directors have voluntarily resigned to pursue other opportunities; and that two new Directors have been elected to the Company's Board.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Company closed on working capital line which makes up to $5MM available for investment in the Company's membership acquisition, retention and engagement strategies.
- Two Directors have resigned without conflict or controversy to take new positions elsewhere.
- Two new Directors, David J. Schramm and Lee Hillman, have been elected to the Company's Board of Directors.

Katherine Butkevich, the Company's CEO, explained that "this capital will be invested primarily in our National Association of Professional Women ("NAPW") network to optimize membership acquisition and engagement efforts, which in turn will drive growth in and retention of our members." She continued, "The capital and strategic resources provided by our new White Winston partnership, will further our ability to continue to execute our strategic plan related to driving value in our core networking business."

The Company announced the departure of two of its Directors, Barry Feierstein and Daniel Marovitz. Both left without conflict or controversy, in order to focus their energies on new senior executive positions.

The Company also announced the election of two new Directors, David J. Schramm and Lee Hillman. Mr. Hillman will become Chair of the Company's Audit Committee. Jim Kirsch, Executive Chair of the Company's Board, noted that "both Mr. Hillman and Mr. Schramm have a deep and life-long commitment to diversity in the workforce. They share a passion for the Company's mission to empower diverse professionals to achieve their professional and personal life goals."

Mr. Schramm, former President and CEO of Maxwell Technologies (MXWL), is a seasoned professional with over 30 years' experience in operations, strategy, engineering, and business execution. At Maxwell, he was instrumental in growing revenues from $52 million (EPS -0.80) in 2007 to $193 million (EPS +0.23) by 2013.
