3. compliance with applicable governmental laws, rules and regulations;

4. the protection of Company assets, including corporate opportunities and confidential information; and

5. fair dealing practices and deter wrongdoing.

6. accountability for adherence to this Code.

All directors, officers and other employees are required to be familiar with this Code, comply with its provisions and report any suspected violations as described below.

HONEST AND ETHICAL CONDUCT

The Company’s policy is to promote high standards of integrity by conducting its affairs honestly and ethically.

Each director, officer and other employee must act with integrity and observe the highest ethical standards of business conduct in their dealings with the Company’s customers, suppliers, partners, service providers, competitors, employees and anyone else with whom they have contact in the course of performing their job.

CONFlicTS OF INTEREST

A conflict of interest occurs when an individual’s private interest interferes, or even appears to interfere, with the interests of the Company as a whole. A conflict of interest can arise when a director, officer or other employee takes actions or has interests that may make it difficult to perform their work for the Company objectively and effectively. Conflicts of interest also arise when a director, officer or other employee (or a member of their family) receives improper personal benefits as a result of their position in the Company.
Loans by the Company to, or guarantees by the Company of, obligations of directors, officers, other employees or their family members are of special concern. Loans by the Company to, or guarantees by the Company of, obligations of any director or executive officer are expressly prohibited.

Whether or not a conflict of interest exists or will exist can be unclear. Conflicts of interest should be avoided unless specifically authorized as described in the paragraph below.

Persons other than directors and executive officers who have questions about a potential conflict of interest or who become aware of an actual or potential conflict should discuss the matter with, and seek a determination and prior authorization or approval from, their supervisor or the Company’s General Counsel. A supervisor may not authorize or approve conflict of interest matters or make determinations as to whether a problematic conflict of interest exists without first providing the Company’s General Counsel with a written description of the activity and seeking the Company’s General Counsel’s written approval. If the supervisor is involved in the potential or actual conflict, the matter should instead be discussed directly with the Company’s General Counsel.

Directors and executive officers must seek determinations and prior authorizations or approvals of potential conflicts of interest exclusively from the Board’s Audit Committee (the “Audit Committee”).

CORPORATE OPPORTUNITIES

All directors, officers and other employees owe a duty to the Company to advance its interests when the opportunity to do so arises. Directors, officers and other employees are prohibited from taking for themselves personally opportunities that are discovered through the use of Company property, information or position. Directors, officers and other employees may not use Company property, information or position for personal gain. In addition, no director, officer or other employee may compete with the Company.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Directors, officers and other employees should maintain the confidentiality of information entrusted to them by the Company or by its customers, suppliers or other business partners, except when disclosure is authorized or legally mandated. Confidential information includes all non-public information that might be of use to the Company’s competitors or harmful to the Company or its customers, suppliers or other business partners if disclosed.

FAIR DEALING

Each director, officer and other employee should endeavor to deal fairly with the Company’s customers, suppliers, business partners, competitors, employees and anyone else with whom they have contact in the course of performing their job. No director, officer or other employee should take unfair advantage of anyone through manipulation, concealment, abuse or privileged information, misrepresentation of facts or any other unfair dealing practice.
PROTECTION AND PROPER USE OF COMPANY ASSETS

All directors, officers and other employees should protect the Company’s assets and ensure their efficient use. Theft, carelessness and waste have a direct impact on the Company’s profitability and are prohibited.

All Company assets should be used only for legitimate business purposes. Any suspected incident of fraud or theft should be reported for investigation immediately.

The obligation to protect Company assets includes the Company’s proprietary information. Proprietary information includes intellectual property such as trade secrets, patents, trademarks, and copyrights, as well as business and marketing plans, engineering and manufacturing ideas, designs, databases, records and any non-public financial data or reports. Unauthorized use or distribution of this information is prohibited and could also be illegal and result in civil or criminal penalties.

COMPLIANCE

Directors, officers and other employees should comply, both in letter and spirit, with all applicable laws, rules and regulations in the cities, states and countries in which the Company operates.

Although not all directors, officers and other employees are expected to know the details of all applicable laws, rules and regulations, it is important to know enough to determine when to seek advice from appropriate personnel. Questions about compliance should be addressed to the Company’s General Counsel.

Insider trading is unethical, illegal and a violation of the Company’s Insider Trading Policy.

DISCLOSURE

The Company’s periodic reports and other documents filed with the SEC, including all financial statements and other financial information, must comply with applicable federal securities laws and SEC rules.

Each director, officer and other employee who contributes in any way to the preparation or verification of the Company’s financial statements and other financial information must ensure that the Company’s books, records and accounts are accurately maintained. Each director, officer and other employee must cooperate fully with the Company’s accounting and internal audit departments, as well as the Company’s independent public accountants and counsel.
