

February 8, 2007

Southwest Airlines Offers More Flights to Key Destinations; Customers Now Have More Choices for Summer Travel

DALLAS, Feb. 8 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Southwest Airlines (NYSE: LUV) announced today the addition of several new flights giving Customers more choices for their summer travel plans. Southwest Airlines is adding new flights in several key Southwest cities such as Denver, Baltimore/Washington, and Chicago Midway. Flights are available for booking today with travel beginning in May 2007. To take advantage of these new Southwest Airlines flights visit: http://www.southwest.com/?src=PR_NS_020807

"Southwest is a growth airline," said Gary Kelly. "We're dedicated to bringing Customers more nonstop flights to the places they want to go."

The new flights break down as follows:

BEGINNING MAY 4, 2007:

- * One new nonstop roundtrip between Denver and Tampa Bay.
- * One additional daily roundtrip between Baltimore/Washington and Orlando (for a total of 10).
- * One additional daily roundtrip between Baltimore/Washington and Denver (for a total of three).
- * One additional daily roundtrip between Detroit Metro and Orlando (for a total of two).

BEGINNING MAY 13, 2007:

- * One additional daily roundtrip between Chicago Midway and Manchester (for a total of five).
- * One additional daily roundtrip between Chicago Midway and Norfolk (for a total of two).
- * One additional daily roundtrip between Chicago Midway and San Jose (for a total of two).
- * One additional daily roundtrip between Chicago Midway and Tucson (for a total of two).
- * One additional daily roundtrip between Burbank and San Jose (for a total of 10).
- * One additional daily roundtrip between Las Vegas and Portland (for a total of four).

Southwest is offering special fares for the new nonstop flight between Denver and Tampa Bay. Customers can take advantage of $99 one-way fares on this new nonstop service. These 21-day advance purchase fares are available for purchase beginning today, for travel through Aug. 24, 2007.

FARE RULES

New Service Fare Sale

New Service fares are available for purchase today through Aug. 24, 2007. All tickets must be purchased 21 days before departure and are valid only on nonstop service. Fares are available one-way and are combinable with all other fares (except Senior Fares). When combining fares, all ticketing restrictions apply. Seats are limited. Fares may vary by destination and day of travel and will not be available on some flights that operate during very busy travel times and holiday periods. Fares do not include a federal segment tax of $3.40 per takeoff and landing. Fares do not include airport-assessed passenger facility charges (PFC) of up to $4.50 one-way and U.S. government-imposed September 11th Security Fees of up to $2.50 one-way. Fares are subject to change until ticketed. Fares are available for travel on Southwest Airlines-operated service only. Tickets are nonrefundable but may be applied toward the purchase of future travel on Southwest Airlines if unused. Fares are valid only on Southwest-published, operated, and scheduled service and are not available through the Group Desk. Any change in itinerary may result in an increase in fare. Standby travel requires an upgrade to the full unrestricted fare.

After 35 years of service, Southwest Airlines continues to offer the best value in airline travel. Southwest offers a very comfortable ride with all premium leather seats and plenty of legroom. Customers enjoy complimentary pillows, blankets, snacks, juice, soda, and water on all flights. Since 1987, the airline has maintained the lowest Customer complaint ratio to Customers boarded as published in the Department of Transportation's Air Travel Consumer Report. Southwest Airlines, the nation's largest carrier in terms of domestic passengers enplaned, currently serves 63 cities in 32 states. Based in Dallas, Southwest currently operates more than 3,200 flights a day and has more than 32,000 Employees systemwide.

<http://www.southwest.com>

SOURCE Southwest Airlines