

REXAHN PHARMACEUTICALS, INC.

NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

(Reviewed and amended May 28, 2019)

Purpose

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) is appointed by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Rexahn Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the “Company”) (1) to assist the Board by identifying individuals qualified to become members of the Board (“Directors”) and to recommend to the Board nominees to fill vacancies in membership of the Board as they occur and, prior to each Annual Meeting of Shareholders, a slate of nominees for election as Directors at such meeting; (2) to develop and recommend to the Board a set of guidelines on corporate governance for the Company; (3) to lead the Board in its review of the Board’s performance; (4) to recommend to the Board the Director nominees for each committee of the Board; and (5) assist the Board in developing and evaluating potential candidates for executive positions and oversee plans for management succession and development.

Committee Membership

The Committee shall consist of at least three members, one of whom shall be designated the chairman and each of whom shall meet the criteria for independence required by the rules of The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC. The Directors and the chairman of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board. Members of the Committee may be replaced by the Board.

Committee Authority and Responsibilities

The Committee shall have direct responsibility to:

1. Review, evaluate and seek out candidates qualified to become Directors, consistent with criteria approved by the Board, who may be submitted by Directors, officers, employees, shareholders and others for recommendation to the Board. In fulfilling this responsibility, the Committee shall also consult with the Board and the CEO concerning Director candidates.
2. Periodically review the size of the Board and recommend adjustments to the Board from time to time.
3. Develop and periodically reevaluate, not less frequently than every three years, a list of selection criteria to be approved by the Board and used by the Committee for Board and committee membership and recommend any proposed changes to the selection criteria to the Board for approval.
4. Review, in consultation with the Board and CEO, the Board’s committee structure and recommend annually to the Board for its approval the Directors for appointment to committees of the Board. The Committee shall review and recommend slates annually and shall recommend additional committee members to fill vacancies as needed,

5. Establish procedures for the Committee to oversee the evaluation of the Board, its committees, individual Directors and management. Receive comments from all Directors and report to the Board with an assessment of the Board's performance.
6. Consider matters of corporate governance, including periodically review whether the offices of Chairman of the Board and CEO should be vested in the same person or two different people, or whether the Chairman should be an employee of the Company or should be elected from among the non-employee Directors, and provide recommendations to the Board with respect thereto.
7. Develop and oversee continuing education for Directors.
8. Consider the circumstances under which a Director materially changes his or her position with his or her employer or becomes aware of circumstances that may adversely reflect upon the Director or the Company, and in certain cases consider requesting that the Director submit his or her resignation from the Board if, for example, continuing service on the Board by the individual is not consistent with the criteria deemed necessary for continuing service on the Board.
9. Develop and recommend to the Board for its approval a set of guidelines on corporate governance for the Company, review and reassess the adequacy of the guidelines and recommend any proposed changes to the guidelines to the Board for approval.
10. Have the sole authority to retain and terminate any search firm to be used to identify Director candidates and have sole authority to approve the search firm's fees and other retention terms.
11. Have the authority, without seeking approval from the Board, to retain independent legal, financial, accounting or other advisors.
12. Assist the Board in developing and evaluating potential candidates for executive positions and oversee plans for management succession and development.
13. Make regular reports to the Board.
14. Review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
15. Periodically review its own performance.

The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees consisting of one or more of its members, when appropriate.

Meetings

The Committee shall meet at least twice a year, with further meetings to occur, or actions to be taken by unanimous written consent, when deemed necessary or desirable.

For the transaction of any business at any meeting of the Committee, a majority of the members shall constitute a quorum. The Committee shall take action by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present at a duly held meeting. The Committee may also take action by unanimous written consent to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law.
