Cummins Investor Relations Announces Organizational Updates

We're pleased to introduce the current Cummins Investor Relations team and welcome Matthew Ruch back to Investor Relations as Executive Director, Investor Relations and Cummins Financial Planning & Analysis. Matt reports to James Hopkins, Vice President – Financial Planning, Capital Management and Investor Relations.

Together, the team brings experience from across Finance, Investor Relations and the broader Cummins organization and remains focused on supporting our investors and stakeholders.

Learn more about the team and their backgrounds below.

Please continue to contact members of the Investor Relations team directly with any inquiries, or reach us at investor.relations@cummins.com. Please update your Investor Relations contacts and email distribution lists to reflect these changes.

Investor Relations Team:

Matthew Ruch

Executive Director, Investor Relations and

matthew.ruch@cummins.com

Matthew Ruch rejoined the Investor Relations team in November 2026 as Executive Director, Investor Relations and Cummins Financial Planning & Analysis, reporting to James Hopkins, Vice President – Financial Planning, Capital Management and Investor Relations.

Since joining Cummins in 2016, Matt has held several roles across the finance organization. He began his career as a member of the Finance Development Program and has since held positions in Corporate FP&A, Investor Relations and Accelera. Most recently, Matt served as a finance leader within the Aftermarket business, supporting strategic initiatives to transform and strengthen Cummins' aftermarket. These experiences have given him a broad perspective on our financial operations, business strategy and growth priorities and prepared him well for this role.

Matt holds an undergraduate degree in Finance and Accounting from Indiana University and earned his MBA from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University. He is also a Certified Public Accountant. In addition to his core responsibilities, Matt leads the Finance Development Program Steering Committee and supports Cummins' recruiting efforts at Indiana University.

Colleen Koeberl
