DDC Enterprise Regains NYSE Listing Compliance

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- DDC Enterprise, Ltd. (NYSEAM: DDC), (“DayDayCook,” “DDC,” or the “Company”), a leading multi-brand Asian consumer food company, today announced that it has regained compliance with the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) continued listing standards set forth in Part 10 of the NYSE American Company Guide. The Company has resolved the continued listing deficiency with respect to Section 1003(a)(i) referenced in a NYSE letter dated April 23, 2024.

“We have made tremendous strides in improving our stockholder’s equity through debt conversions and capital raises and we are excited to regain compliance with continued listing standards on the NYSE-AM exchange,” said DDC’s chief executive officer Norma Chu. “The improvements are another step in creating stockholder value and building a leading Asian food company.”

On 31 December 2024, DDC released its unaudited first half 2024 results. DDC reduced USD 5.6 million in debt by converting debt into equity. Shareholder equity increased by 109% to US$19.7 million compared to the year ended 31 December 2023. Total revenue increased by 40% to USD 17.2 million versus the same period a year ago.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this press release are forward-looking statements, including, for example, statements about NYSE and SEC compliance, estimated revenue, margins, cash and growth and expansion. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties and are based on the Company’s current expectations and projections about future events that the Company believes may affect its financial condition, results of operations, business strategy and financial needs. These forward-looking statements are also based on assumptions regarding the Company’s present and future business strategies and the environment in which the Company will operate in the future. Investors can find many (but not all) of these statements by the use of words such as “may,” “will,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “aim,” “estimate,” “intend,” “plan,” “believe,” “likely to” or other similar expressions. The Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent occurring events or circumstances, or changes in its expectations, except as may be required by law. Although the Company believes that the expectations expressed in these forward-looking statements are reasonable, it cannot assure you that such expectations will turn out to be correct, and the Company cautions investors that actual results may differ materially from the anticipated results and encourages investors to review other factors that may affect its future results in the Company's registration statement and other filings with the SEC.
