Ingram Micro Expands Cloud Leadership

Accomplished IT Business Leader Stan Clark Joins Ingram Micro as Vice President, Cloud Solutions

SANTA ANA, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 12/16/14 -- Elevating its success as a leading cloud services provider, Ingram Micro Inc. (NYSE: IM) today announced Stan Clark as vice president, Cloud Solutions.

In this role, Clark is responsible for growing Ingram Micro's cloud market share by building its services and solutions portfolio which includes identifying and recruiting key strategic cloud partners, developing new industry vertical services and solutions, and managing the partner experience within the division's product marketing and management, vendor management, and cloud solutions teams. Clark reports directly to Nimesh Dave, Ingram Micro's executive vice president, Global Cloud Computing.

An expert in business development, channel development and alliances, Clark's prior experience includes serving as the worldwide senior director, Board of Advisors, Office of the Customer at HP. During his six years with HP, Clark made significant contributions to the company's business growth, serving as global director of strategy and planning and as senior director of managed services and solutions for HP's successful Printers and Personal Systems (PPS) Group. His global channel sales and marketing experience extends across enterprise markets as well as small and midsize businesses.

"Stan's track record as a proven IT business leader will help Ingram Micro Cloud expand its cloud solutions portfolio and strategic global alliances to bring greater business value to our partners and stakeholders," says Dave. "We are pleased to welcome Stan to our leadership team."

"Channel resellers and vendors who are serious about establishing and growing a credible cloud services and solutions portfolio need to take a serious look at the investments Ingram Micro is making to make cloud accessible and profitable," says Clark. "I am thrilled to join such a dynamic team of business-minded technology professionals and help channel partners 'Realize the Promise of Technology' by using Ingram Micro's cloud services and solutions. Together, we can build a strategic advantage that will not only benefit their business, but also bring tremendous gains to their customers."
