After careful consideration, the Board of Directors takes the view that a choice of domicile for service is no longer warranted. More generally, Article 30 has been reviewed and updated in view of the relocation of the Company's place of effective management, taking into account the revised Brussels I Regulation. The system proposed in the new Article 30 envisages that matters concerning the legal relationship between the Company, its directors and shareholders will be governed by Dutch law, in spite of the Company having its place of effective management in Ireland, and that all legal proceedings with respect to this legal relationship will be submitted to the Dutch courts exclusively.
