Company Raises Full Year 2022 Revenue Outlook

HERNDON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- BlackSky Technology Inc. ("BlackSky" or the "Company") (NYSE: BKSY), announced results for the second quarter ended June 30, 2022.

Second Quarter Financial Highlights:

- Revenue of $15.1 million, up 105% from the prior year period
- Imagery & software analytical services revenue improves 161% over the prior year's guarter and to 88% of total revenues
- Net loss of $26.3 million
- Adjusted EBITDA (1) loss of $8.8 million
- Cash balance (2) at the end of June 2022 was $111.2 million
- Capital expenditures of $12.1 million
- ⁽¹⁾ Non-GAAP financial measure. See "Non-GAAP Financial Measures" below and reconciliation table at the end of this release.
- (2) Cash balance includes cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, and short-term investments.

"Second quarter revenue hit an all-time high for the Company, more than doubling over the prior year period driven by strong customer engagement and demand for BlackSky's dynamic hourly monitoring and on-demand satellite tasking capabilities," said Brian E. O'Toole, BlackSky CEO. "In the second quarter, we won the Electro Optical Commercial Layer (EOCL) award with the National Reconnaissance Office with a total value up to $1.021 billion over the next 10 years. This win validates BlackSky's technology and our ability to deliver vital information at scale, in support of the U.S. government's real-time critical mission needs. We also won additional contracts with other government agencies totaling approximately an additional quarter billion dollars to provide space-based dynamic monitoring and analytic insights using our Company's proprietary and proven Spectra Al software platform. And most recently, we entered into a major partnership with Esri, the industrial leader in geospatial intelligence software, to provide their global users for the first time, with on-demand satellite tasking services with imagery delivered directly into Esri's ArcGIS Online platform. Now more than ever, our world needs real-time information, and BlackSky is the partner of choice to deliver it using the Company's first-of-its-kind platform. With strong second guarter results and a growing sales pipeline, we look forward to continuing the momentum into the second half of 2022 and setting the stage for the Company's next phase of growth."

Financial Results

Revenues

Total revenue for the second quarter of 2022 was $15.1 million, up $7.7 million or 105% from the second quarter of 2021. Imagery and software analytical services revenue was $13.4 million, a 161% growth over the prior year period primarily driven by accelerated demand from the U.S. and international governments. The mix of revenue from imagery and software analytical services grew to approximately 88% of total revenues. Engineering and systems integration revenue contributed $1.8 million in the second quarter of 2022.

Cost of Revenue

Cost of sales as a percent of revenue was approximately 65% for the second quarter of 2022 compared to approximately 87% in the second quarter of 2021. This improvement was primarily driven by greater volumes of imagery and analytical services revenue which comprises of low fixed cost structure as a percent of revenue.

Operating Expenses

Operating expenses for the second quarter of 2022 were $27.0 million, which included $2.6 million of non-cash stock-based compensation expense, compared to operating expenses of $30.8 million in the second quarter of 2021, which included an $18.4 million satellite impairment loss and $0.3 million in non-cash stock-based compensation expense. Excluding the prior year's impairment loss and stock-based compensation expense in both years, operating expenses increased from $12.1 million to $24.4 million year-over-year on a comparable basis. The increase was primarily due to higher depreciation expense from additional satellites placed into orbit in 2021, investments in sales, software, and engineering hires, and public company operating costs.

Operating Loss

Operating loss for the second quarter of 2022 was $21.7 million compared to an operating loss of $29.8 million in the second quarter of 2021. The year-over-year improvement in operating loss was primarily due to the one-time satellite impairment loss recognized in the prior year period and increased imagery and analytical services revenue in the second quarter of 2022, partially offset by higher operating expenses as stated above.

Adjusted EBITDA (1)

Adjusted EBITDA loss for the second quarter of 2022 was $8.8 million compared to an adjusted EBITDA loss of $7.6 million in the prior year period. The $1.2 million year-over-year decline was primarily due to increased revenue growth offset by investments in sales, software, and engineering hires and public company operating costs.

Balance Sheet & Capital Expenditures

As of June 30, 2022, cash and cash equivalents, restricting cash, and short-term investments totaled $111.2 million. Capital expenditures for the second quarter of 2022 were

Recent Business Accomplishments

- Awarded the Electro Optical Commercial Layer (EOCL) contract with the National Reconnaissance Office (NRO), valued at up to $1.021 billion over the next 10 years, to provide advanced imaging services utilizing the Company's current and future satellite constellation
- Won a five-year Indefinite Delivery Indefinite Quantity agreement with the Joint Artificial Intelligence Center (JAIC) to create and optimize data sets for the U.S. Department of Defense with a total value of $241 million
- Entered into a major partnership with Esri, the industry leader in geospatial intelligence software, to provide the first dynamic, on-demand satellite tasking services to Esri's global ArcGIS Online customer base and over 350,000 organizations
- Won a $4.4 million contract with the Intelligence Advanced Research Projects Activity (IARPA) to support the second phase of the multi-year program for space-based dynamic monitoring

Other Updates

As previously announced on June 15, 2022, the Company promoted Henry Dubois to Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Dubois joined BlackSky as Chief Development Officer in August 2021 after having served as an advisor to the Company's board since 2018. Mr. Dubois brings over 30 years of financial experience, including serving as an executive at two geospatial and commercial remote sensing companies.

2022 Outlook

Customer utilization and demand for BlackSky's unique dynamic monitoring, on-demand satellite tasking, and analytic insights continue to be strong. Increased market demand, combined with several large multi-year contracts recently awarded to BlackSky, sets the stage for a robust second half of the year.

As a result of these opportunities, the Company has raised its full-year revenue expectations to between $62 and $66 million, representing an 88% year-over-year growth using the midpoint of the range. The Company continues to expect capital expenditures for the entire year of 2022 to be between $52 million and $56 million.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

Adjusted EBITDA is defined as net income or loss attributable to BlackSky before interest expense, income taxes, depreciation and amortization, as well as significant non-cash and/or non-recurring expenses as management believes these items are not as useful in evaluating the Company's core operating performance. These items include, but are not limited to, realized loss on conversion of bridge notes, stock-based compensation expense, unrealized (gain)/loss on certain warrants/shares classified as derivatives, satellite impairment loss, (gain)/loss on debt extinguishment, (gain)/loss from discontinued operations, severance, loss/(gain) on equity method investment, transaction related legal settlements, and transaction costs associated with derivative liabilities.

Adjusted EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial performance measure. It should not be considered in isolation or as an alternative to measures determined in accordance with GAAP. Please refer to the schedule herein and our SEC filings for a reconciliation of Adjusted EBITDA to Net Loss, the most comparable measures reported in accordance with GAAP and for a discussion of the presentation, comparability, and use of Adjusted EBITDA.
