Technical Communications Reports Strong Q2 Results

By Paul Silver

Technical Communications Corp. (NASDAQ:TCCO)

For more than 50 years, TCC has specialized in designing, manufacturing, marketing and supporting superior-grade secure communications systems and customized solutions that protect highly sensitive voice, data and video information transmitted over a wide range of networks. Securing data in transit is an essential component of a cybersecurity strategy.

Technical Communications Corporation recently announced its results for the three and six months ended March 30, 2013. For the second quarter of the Company's 2013 fiscal year, the Company reported a net loss of ($328,000), or ($0.18) per share, on revenue of $546,000, compared to a net loss of ($366,000), or ($0.20) per share, on revenue of $1,617,000 for the quarter ended March 24, 2012. For the six months ended March 30, 2013, the Company reported a net loss of ($638,000), or ($0.35) per share, on revenue of $2,142,000, compared to net income of $563,000, or $0.31 per share, on revenue of $6,057,000 for the six months ended March 24, 2012.

Commenting on corporate performance, Carl H. Guild, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer of TCC, said, "Our results are consistent with previously announced expectations of slower growth related to the delay of certain expected contracts. Although we do see some improvement in securing new business, some contract delays are still expected. With the substantial completion of certain product development efforts, we have increased our emphasis on marketing and have received positive responses. We expect to see increased field demonstrations and operational testing of our new radio and network security products during the remainder of 2013 and throughout the following year."

Contract Award

Mr. Guild added, "Additionally, we are pleased to announce that on May 4, 2013, we received a $3.6 million foreign military sales (FMS) contract from the U.S. Army Communications and Electronics Command (CECOM) to upgrade the DSD 72A-SP military bulk encryption system currently in use securing strategic-level, military communications for the Government of Egypt.

Under this contract, TCC will provide upgrade kits which enable the DSD 72A-SP to function with next-generation radios. The upgrade also enables the 72A Crypto Management System to communicate via an Ethernet IP link. TCC will also provide test equipment and training services both at TCC's facility in Concord, MA as well as in-country. Delivery of the equipment is expected to be completed by the end of this fiscal year. Future follow-on sales are expected as this customer proceeds to upgrade the balance of its network. These feature and performance upgrades are expected to expand the capability of the DSD 72A-SP encryption system and are available to all new and existing customers."

TCC's solutions are optimized for performance, cryptographic strength and ease of use, supporting its CipherONE Optimized Network Encryption best-in-class criteria. The Company's broad product portfolio spans radio HF/VHF/UHF; mobile telephones; landline telephones and fax machines; and fiber optic, satellite, microwave, frame relay and other data packet media.

Due to its solid reputation, TCC has many long-term relationships around the globe, while the Company's large base of international representatives, direct sales force, and technical field staff give each customer personalized service and support. With a commitment to excellence, TCC has been ISO 9001 certified since 1995 for its stringent company-wide quality management system and processes. Today, more than 2,000 government entities, military agencies and corporate enterprises in over 115 countries rely on TCC's proven security to protect their mission-critical communications.

Leading-Edge Technology

TCC continues to set a precedent for others to follow. TCC is committed to research and development as well as providing customized crypto solutions. Half of TCC's employees focus on engineering in support of this commitment. With patents on a number of innovations, and credited with many industry benchmarks, TCC is recognized as providing leading-edge technology with optimum system performance and proven security.

TCC's products have been quick to utilize advancements such as: VLSI custom ICs, field programmable gate arrays (FPGA), application specific integrated circuits (ASIC), digital signal processors (DSPs), 64-bit network microprocessors, and very low power custom analog circuits.

TCC's engineering staff is consistently trained/updated on the latest development tools/platforms to use next-generation technologies.

An innovator in the cryptographic marketplace, TCC pioneered developments such as:

- Protocol sensitive encryption for local and wide area networks
- DSP voice ciphering
- Clear voice override
- Nonlinear cipher feedback mode
- Centralized secure network management
- Customizable cryptographic implementations

TCC is also renowned for its expertise in:

- Cryptographic algorithms
- Automated centralized key management
- Customization capability (with quick turn)
- Networks and systems level expertise
- Providing complete security solutions

In addition to these specialties, TCC's engineering group has expertise in speech digitizing and compression, wireless, vocoder development, wireline and radio modem design, embedded crypto solutions, IFF, networking protocols such as frame relay, IP, SONET, SDH and high-speed interfaces.

Proven Security

Key management is a vital part of a security system. TCC's public and secret key management systems are unnoticeable to users and built to maintain the security of the cryptographic keys at every point in their life cycle - from key generation, through key use and finally key destruction.

With a push of a button, TCC's public key systems, in its telephone and fax equipment, allow secure communications between users who have never before spoken securely. The secret key systems, on the other hand, have a large number of keys stored per encryption device, random key generation and automatic key changes. Global data networks are optimally and efficiently protected with KEYNET, TCC's advanced centralized key and network management system.

QEM and Custom Solutions

Unique to the industry is TCC's customized secure communications solution services. Through threat assessments, site surveys and engineering expertise, TCC designs security solutions to meet specific customer requirements. Whether developing a product for a new application or integrating a national algorithm into state-of-the-art architecture, TCC combines its extensive encryption expertise and broad telecom engineering skills to provide tailor-made, integrated secure communications systems.

TCC's significant experience in the development of specialized, embedded encryption technologies is being applied to the built-in encryption needs of Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs) and suppliers of communications networks and systems. User requirements for communications security can be effectively and transparently met with the use of TCC's encryption technologies integrated into its partner's communication equipment. These valued relationships enhance our partner's communication products.

Florida Small Cap 30

The Florida Small Cap 30 highlights what we believe are the top 30 publicly traded investment opportunities in Florida with a market capitalization less than $500 million on a risk/reward basis. While we limit the number of positions to 30, the portfolio may temporarily contain less than 30 positions as the result of removing positions. To qualify for inclusion, companies in the WSR-Florida Small Cap 30 must have a market capitalization less than $500 million as well as met a certain number of valuation and performance based hurdles including, but not limited to, revenue growth, PEG ratio, tangible book value, and profitability. Changes to the Florida Small Cap 30 list will be emailed to WSR's subscribers via its Daily Notes publication and are updated each month in The Emerging Growth News.

WSR's Aggressive Growth and Speculator Focus Lists

Companies included in the WSR-Aggressive Growth list are primarily companies based outside of our home state of Florida and are generally trading at a significant discount to their peers, breaking out of long-term bases or have recently announced a significant event. To qualify for inclusion, companies in the WSR-Aggressive Growth portfolio must have a market capitalization less than $500 million and must have met a certain number of valuation and performance based hurdles including but not limited to revenue growth, PEG ratio, tangible book value, and profitability.

Companies included in WSR-Speculator portfolio are typically early stage or turnaround companies which are frequently WSR clients and (in our opinion) have the potential for a three hundred percent return over the next three to five years. Changes to these lists are emailed to WSR's subscribers via its Daily Notes publication and are updated each month in The Emerging Growth News.

APRIL'S TOP COMPANIES UNDER $5.00 AS MEASURED BY INSIDER BUYING:

Investors and analysts look to the buying and selling trends of insiders, who are typically long-term investors, for clues to the broader market outlook. According to Ben Silverman, InsiderScore.com's director of research, "Insiders have been very accurate in terms of calling market bottoms, both temporary, in terms of corrections, and troughs."

Although insider buying is a useful tool to consider when making a decision on which stock to buy, it should be looked at carefully lest it give a false positive signal. Investors need to look behind the headlines and conduct their own research before buying on this basis. For example, option exercises can also give false signals. This section summarizes the companies (trading under $5.00 per share) with the greatest amount of purchasing by insiders during the previous month.
