Robert Craig Joins Korn Ferry as Senior Client Partner

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Korn Ferry (NYSE:KFY) today announced that Robert Craig has joined the firm as a senior client partner. He will be based in the firm's Los Angeles office.

Craig joins Korn Ferry from a global search firm, where he was a member of the Industrial and Natural Resources and Financial Officers practices. There, he worked with clients across several sector verticals, including industrials, power and utilities, and renewable energy.

Previously, Craig served as chief financial officer for a power project developer. Earlier in his career, Craig held leadership roles in energy and power investment banking groups at multiple banks, where he was responsible for the origination and execution of strategic advisory, M&A and capital-raising transactions.

"We are thrilled to have Robert join our Industrial team. His extensive network in the power and utilities sector will further enhance our client offering in this dynamic market," said Neil Collins, senior client partner, Korn Ferry. "He will greatly enhance our private equity presence for broader industrials."

Craig earned an MBA in finance from the UCLA Anderson School of Management and a BBA in accounting, summa cum laude, from the University of Notre Dame.
