Rarible Partners with Exodus to Integrate Passkeys Wallet with NFT Marketplace

Rarible integrates Exodus' Passkeys Wallet into the Rarible NFT marketplace, offering users seamless crypto management and enhanced security

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 28, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Rarible, the NFT company, is excited to announce its partnership with Exodus, the leading self-custodial cryptocurrency software platform. This collaboration introduces Exodus' innovative Passkeys Wallet to Rarible's platform, enabling users to create a Passkeys wallet in just one click and on-ramp in seconds, allowing for more time to explore the latest drops on Rarible.

"The future of NFTs is multichain, and we're proud to collaborate with the Exodus team to bring our users a wallet solution that embraces this future. As we all work to onboard the next tens of millions of users into Web3, solutions like Exodus Wallet help to remove hurdles and make the experience seamless," says James Richard Fry, VP of Marketing at Rarible.

"Integrating Passkeys Wallet with Rarible elevates the user experience by providing a seamless and secure way to manage and spend crypto assets," said JP Richardson, CEO of Exodus. "This collaboration is a testament to our commitment to enhancing the Web3 ecosystem by making it more accessible and secure for all users."

Rarible and Exodus are dedicated to driving innovation and improving the multichain experience for users across the crypto ecosystem.
