CV Sciences, Inc. to Present and Exhibit as Silver Sponsor at Natural Products Expo West 2018 in Anaheim, California, March 7-11, 2018

Company enters its 3rd year sponsoring and exhibiting at the nation's largest natural products trade show, offering natural health retailers show specials, one-on-one education, and a wide selection of product offerings

LAS VEGAS, Feb. 13, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- CV Sciences, Inc. (OTCQB:CVSI), preeminent manufacturer and distributor of hemp-derived phytocannabinoids including CBD oil, announced today that its industry dominating brand of finished products, PlusCBD Oil™ will be exhibiting at Natural Products Expo West on March 7-11, in Anaheim, California. Produced by New Hope Network, Natural Products Expo West is the leading trade show in the natural, organic and healthy products industry, attracting over 85,000 industry professionals and over 3000 exhibits to the Anaheim Convention Center.

PlusCBD Oil™, the #1 brand of hemp CBD products in the natural channel according to SPINS scan data, has achieved nationwide success since the launch of its brand of dietary supplements in 2014. The brand continues its fervent expansion in the natural products industry, with its products currently being sold in approximately 1500 independent health food stores and counting. "We all know that building trusted brands does not happen overnight. CV Sciences has spent the last 4 years nurturing natural products retailers and industry professionals about the promise of hemp based phytocannabinoids, particularly CBD, and setting the quality standard for other supplement brands entering this burgeoning category," stated Stuart Tomc, VP of Human Nutrition and spokesperson for CV Sciences. "Natural Products Expo West is an incredible venue for new brands entering the industry and New Hope's rigorous vetting process makes it clear from which quality brands to choose."

NEW HOPE NETWORK CBD SUMMIT: CV Sciences is sponsoring New Hope Network's first ever "CBD Summit," held on Wednesday, March 7th from 8:30am to 12:30pm at the Marriott, Grand Ballroom F for Expo attendees interested in learning about the opportunities and challenges facing the hemp CBD market in the United States. CV Sciences' Director of Business Development - Domestic Production will be presenting, "Made in America: Supply Chain Challenges," at 9:30am. Conference Education badge is required for attendance.
