Westell Technologies Announces Agreement to Sell Its Conference Plus Subsidiary to Arkadin

AURORA, Ill.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Westell Technologies, Inc. (NASDAQ: WSTL), a leading provider of broadband products, outside plant telecommunications equipment and conferencing services, today announced that it has entered into a definitive agreement to sell its subsidiary Conference Plus, Inc. to a subsidiary of Arkadin S.A.S. for approximately $41 million in cash, subject to certain adjustments. For the 12 months ended September 30, 2011, Conference Plus had revenues of $43.1 million and operating income of $5.1 million. The transaction is subject to limited closing conditions and is expected to close December 31, 2011. Westell anticipates recognizing a gain on the transaction of approximately $20 million after taxes.

“Conference Plus is a well-run operation that has contributed significantly to Westell over many years,” said Rick Gilbert, Westell’s chairman and chief executive officer. “While we are proud of its accomplishments, we have concluded that it should be even more successful as a part of a larger conferencing business. We think the combination of Conference Plus with Arkadin is the right opportunity, benefiting customers and both organizations. The sale is also good for Westell and will allow us to focus on growing our core telecommunications networking equipment business.”
