Actuant Announces Executive Appointments

MILWAUKEE--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

Actuant Corporation (NYSE:ATU) today announced several corporate executive appointments.

Karen Bauer has joined Actuant as Director, Investor Relations. In this newly created position, Bauer is responsible for leading all investor relations and communication activities for the company. "Karen's strong financial and business background including 14 years of progressive finance, strategy and M&A experience at Johnson Controls, Inc., will be a valuable asset to the investor community and executive management of Actuant," stated Andrew Lampereur, Actuant's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

Actuant also announced the appointment of Chadwick (Chad) DeLuka as Actuant's Corporate Controller and Principal Accounting Officer. DeLuka replaces Timothy Teske who has been promoted to a finance leadership role in the company's Electrical segment. Chad joined Actuant in fiscal 2006 as Assistant Corporate Controller following over a decade in public accounting. Lampereur commented, "Tim has made significant contributions to the company by strengthening both our global financial reporting and the quality of our finance organization since assuming the Corporate Controller role in 2001. Both Tim and Chad's promotions reflect Actuant's philosophy of developing high potential employees through a variety of leadership experiences."

Both Bauer and DeLuka report to Lampereur and are located at Actuant's corporate headquarters in Butler, Wisconsin.
