Two PeopleScout Leaders Recognized in the Recruitment Process Outsourcing Association's 2022 Women in RPO Awards

PeopleScout executive leaders identified as influential women in RPO for leading industry growth and transformation

CHICAGO, March 31, 2022 /PRNewswire/ -- Cindy Cutaia, PeopleReady and PeopleScout chief business operations officer, and Sarah Murphy, PeopleScout senior vice president of client delivery, have been recognized as 2022 Influential Woman award winners in the Recruitment Process Outsourcing Association's second annual Women in RPO Awards.

The Recruitment Process Outsourcing Association presented the Influential Woman and the Rising Woman awards in celebration of International Women's Day on March 8, recognizing women in RPO who make a difference in the lives of their teams and their clients and within their organizations.

"We are so fortunate to have Cindy and Sarah on our PeopleScout team—both have made incredible contributions to the RPO industry, our teams and our clients during their tenure in the industry and at PeopleScout," said Taryn Owen, PeopleReady and PeopleScout President & COO. "Our genuine thanks to RPOA for recognizing Cindy and Sarah for their contributions."
