The Newsweek World's Most Trustworthy Companies ranking showcases companies with the highest global trust levels, a metric that reflects customer loyalty, brand reputation, employee morale, and investor confidence. Being named to this list for a second year strengthens the reputation of Travel + Leisure Co. as a company that prioritizes its customers, employees and investors while excelling on a global scale.

"At Travel + Leisure Co., our mission to put the world on vacation is deeply rooted in a culture that values hospitality, engagement, accountability, respect and teamwork," said Michael D. Brown, president and CEO of Travel + Leisure Co. "Being named a World's Most Trustworthy Company by Newsweek highlights the vital role these shared values play in helping us build and maintain trust with our customers, our investors, and our more than 19,000 global associates."

The World's Most Trusted Companies 2024 recognition comes from a survey conducted by Statista, which polled over 70,000 participants across 23 industries spanning 20 countries. Participants rated companies they knew on three trust factors: Investor Trust, Customer Trust, and Employee Trust. A total of 230,000 evaluations were analyzed.
