Travel + Leisure Co. Offers Emergency Housing for its Southern California Timeshare Owners Evacuated by Wildfires

ORLANDO, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Travel + Leisure Co. (NYSE:TNL), the world's leading vacation ownership and membership travel company, is offering Club Wyndham, WorldMark by Wyndham, Margaritaville Vacation Club, and Shell Vacations Club timeshare owners evacuated as a result of the Southern California wildfires temporary emergency housing at its local resorts.

The company operates 22 vacation club resorts across Southern California which are currently operating safely, and approximately 200 across the continental United States.

Owners in Club Wyndham, WorldMark by Wyndham, Margaritaville Vacation Club, and Shell Vacations Club who live in an evacuation zone in California are eligible for up to seven complimentary nights for temporary shelter, subject to availability and occupancy limits.

"Our hearts go out to everyone impacted by the devastating wildfires in Southern California. It was important to us to quickly react to support the owner families there who may be struggling to adapt to a rapidly changing situation," said Geoff Richards, chief operating officer of Travel + Leisure Co. "Our owner services team is ready to provide assistance to those who need it most."

Eligible owners can find more information on how to get assistance through their owner website or by calling their owner services team.
