New Residential Investment Corp. Receives Court Approval to Buy Select Assets from Ditech Holding Corporation

- U.S. Bankruptcy Court approves New Residential’s acquisition of certain assets from Ditech Holding Corporation
- Acquisition of these assets, in addition to those already owned and operated through NewRez and Shellpoint Mortgage Servicing, would further New Residential’s position as an industry leading originator and servicer
- Acquisition expected to close in the fourth quarter 2019

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- New Residential Investment Corp. (NYSE: NRZ, “New Residential”, the “Company”), a leading provider of capital and services to the mortgage and financial services industries, announced today that the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Court”) has approved the Company’s previously announced asset purchase agreement (“APA”) with Ditech Holding Corporation and Ditech Financial LLC (collectively, “Ditech”).

“We are glad that the Court has approved the agreement and that we can proceed with the closing of this acquisition,” said Michael Nierenberg, Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of New Residential. “As part of this acquisition, we are adding a number of very talented personnel to our servicing, origination and corporate functions and we are very excited to welcome them to our family. From the beginning we have been focused on achieving an outcome that is in the best interest of the long-term strategy of our Company and our shareholders, and believe that today’s confirmation from the Court allows us to move forward with executing our vision.”

The final purchase price will be determined at the closing of the acquisition based on the tangible book value of the related assets, subject to certain agreed upon adjustments. New Residential expects to finance the acquisition of these assets with existing financing facilities and cash on hand.

Under the terms of the APA, New Residential will purchase Ditech’s forward Fannie Mae, Ginnie Mae and non-agency mortgage servicing rights (“MSRs”), the servicer advance receivables relating to such MSRs and other net assets core to the forward origination and servicing businesses. Additionally, New Residential has agreed to assume certain Ditech office spaces and make employment offers to a number of Ditech employees. Under the APA, New Residential will not purchase any of the stock or assets related to Ditech’s reverse mortgage business or the stock of any other Ditech subsidiaries.

The acquisition is expected to close in the fourth quarter 2019, subject to certain closing conditions, including, among other things, receipt of approvals from certain governmental and quasi-governmental agencies, and other customary closing conditions. The sale of certain assets is also subject to receipt of third party consents. Until the acquisition closes, Ditech will continue to operate and service its existing customers.

ABOUT NEW RESIDENTIAL

New Residential is a leading provider of capital and services to the mortgage and financial services industries. With approximately $37 billion in assets as of June 30, 2019, New Residential has built a diversified, hard-to-replicate portfolio with high-quality investment strategies that have generated returns across different interest rate environments. New Residential's investment portfolio includes mortgage servicing related assets, non-agency securities (and associated call rights), residential loans and other related opportunistic investments. Since inception in 2013, New Residential has a proven track record of performance, growing and protecting the value of its assets while generating attractive risk-adjusted returns and delivering almost $3 billion in dividends to shareholders. Following the acquisition of Shellpoint Partners LLC ("Shellpoint") in 2018, New Residential also benefits from Shellpoint's origination and third-party servicing platform, as well as a suite of ancillary businesses, including title insurance, appraisal management, property management and other real estate services. New Residential is organized and conducts its operations to qualify as a real estate investment trust for federal income tax purposes. New Residential is managed by an affiliate of Fortress Investment Group LLC, a global investment management firm, and headquartered in New York City.
