UiPath Announces 2025 AI25 Awards Winners

Annual awards program honors the most innovative AI and agentic automation implementations of the UiPath Platform™

LAS VEGAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- UiPath (NYSE: PATH), a global leader in agentic automation, today announced the winners of its UiPath AI25 Awards program. The annual program recognizes the 25 most innovative UiPath customers using the UiPath Platform™ for Agentic Automation to expand the automation and AI potential of their organization. The 25 winning organizations will be honored at UiPath FUSION, UiPath's annual gathering of agentic automation experts and practitioners.

AI25 winners are leveraging AI and agentic automation—which combines the capabilities of AI agents, people, and robots—to deliver never-before-seen levels of productivity in their organizations, focusing not only on automating individual tasks, but on entire end-to-end processes. UiPath customers worldwide submitted applications detailing how they have used AI and agentic automation to redefine what's possible—not just in business, but in the ways we work and live.

The winners were selected by a panel of expert third-party judges based on the effective articulation of the business drivers, implementation, and results of their agentic and AI journey with UiPath.

The 2025 class of AI25 Award winners include:
