"Skechers has been part of my family's wardrobe for years. As a busy working mum, I'm always on the go, so comfort is extremely important along with having an effortless look day to day. I love how it caters to everyone's style—including my own," said Myleene Klass. "I had an absolute blast shooting my first campaign for Skechers near their corporate headquarters in California, and I couldn't be more excited to join the Skechers team. I know this will be a great partnership that will align perfectly with my lifestyle—let's go!"

"Myleene has captivated fans across the UK and Ireland with her many talents. Starting off as a jobbing musician and finding fame with pop group Hear'Say in 2001, Myleene released her debut solo album Moving On a couple of years later which has since gone double platinum. In 2006, pushing herself out of her comfort zone as always, she appeared in the show I'm A Celebrity... Get Me Out Of Here!, in which she came in at second place and became one of the most searched-for celebrities ever on the internet at the time.

Myleene has hosted a variety of major TV programme including CD:UK, The One Show, Popstar to Operastar and BBQ Champ. Now a mum of three, with a blended family of seven, Myleene covers so many areas, from radio presenter at Smooth FM and Classic FM, to author of Top 10 bestseller They Don't Teach This at School, to creating her own fashion line with British retailer NEXT.
