Wyndham and Decameron Team Up to Expand All-Inclusive Offerings

Deal brings over 2,600 rooms into Wyndham's rapidly growing all-inclusive portfolio, now spanning more than 50 resorts globally

PARSIPPANY, N.J., May 14, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- Wyndham Rewards® members can now access more all-inclusive offerings than ever before, including nine new resorts across Mexico, Panama and Jamaica, thanks to a newly formed alliance between Wyndham Hotels & Resorts and Decameron All Inclusive Hotels & Resorts.

The latest in a growing list of notable industry collaborations, the deal expands Wyndham's all-inclusive offerings to more than 50 resorts globally while connecting Decameron to Wyndham's best-in-class marketing, technology and distribution platforms, including Wyndham Rewards®, the industry's number one hotel rewards program as named by USA TODAY and U.S. News & World Report. Decameron—one of Latin America's premier owners and operators known for its decades of experience and expansive portfolio of resorts throughout the region—will continue to own and operate all nine resorts.

"Whether it's a honeymoon or a family vacation, all-inclusive resorts take the stress out of getting away, bundling virtually every aspect of the trip into one single price. It's what makes all-inclusives a beloved travel option for guests and why increasingly, operators like Decameron are turning to Wyndham—helping to significantly expand their reach to travelers around the globe."

- Gustavo Viescas, President, Latin America and the Caribbean, Wyndham Hotels & Resorts
