Redwood Trust Announces Dividend Distribution Tax Information For 2018

MILL VALLEY, Calif., Jan. 28, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Redwood Trust, Inc. (NYSE: RWT), a leading innovator in housing credit investing, today announced tax information regarding its dividend distributions for 2018.

Shareholders should check the tax statements they receive from their brokerage firms to confirm the Redwood dividend distribution information reported in those statements conforms to the information reported here. Set forth in this press release are Redwood's expectations with respect to the treatment of our 2018 dividend distributions for federal income tax purposes. Shareholders should consult their tax advisors to determine the amount of taxes that should be paid on Redwood's dividend distributions for federal, state, and other income tax purposes.

All of the common stock dividend distributions paid during 2018 are reportable on shareholders' 2018 federal income tax returns, including one $0.28 per share and three $0.30 per share quarterly regular dividend distributions. Thus, for 2018, Redwood shareholders that held stock for this entire period should report a total of $1.18 per share of common stock dividend distributions for federal income tax purposes.

Under the federal income tax rules applicable to real estate investment trusts ("REITs"), Redwood's 2018 dividend distributions are expected to be characterized for income tax purposes as 69% ordinary income and 31% long-term capital gains. None of Redwood's 2018 dividend distributions are expected to be characterized for federal income tax purposes as a return of capital or qualified dividends.

As a REIT, the portion of Redwood's 2018 dividend distributions that can be characterized as long-term capital gain is limited to Redwood's net long-term capital gain income for the year. Any remaining amount is classified as ordinary REIT dividends under the applicable federal income tax rules. Beginning in 2018 under the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, individual taxpayers may generally take a deduction from taxable income of 20% of their ordinary REIT dividends. This deduction does not apply to REIT dividends classified as qualified or long-term capital gain dividends.

For shareholders that are corporations, Redwood's dividend distributions are not generally eligible for the corporate dividends-received deduction or the new 20% ordinary REIT dividend deduction.

The table below provides more detailed information on the expected federal income tax characterization for each of Redwood's common stock dividend distributions that were paid for 2018.
