Maximus Named to $300 Million IRS Consulting Services Blanket Purchase Agreement

Multiple-award, five-year Blanket Purchase Agreement (BPA) will help strengthen Taxpayer Services Organization and improve the taxpayer experience

TYSONS, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Maximus (NYSE: MMS), a leading employer and provider of government services worldwide, announced today it has been awarded a spot on a Blanket Purchase Agreement (BPA) with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) for Non-IT Consulting Services. The multiple-award BPA has a five-year period of performance and allows Maximus to compete for task orders with a combined ceiling of $300 million.

The services under this BPA include Strategic Planning, Strategy Initiatives, Business Process Improvement, Regulatory Compliance, Concept of Operations (CONOPS), and Program Integration Support across the Taxpayer Services Organization, formerly known as Wage and Investment (W&I). Among the focus areas of this BPA is the development of operational plans that align with the IRS Strategic Plan through 2031 while adhering to the agency's mission, vision, and values.

"Maximus has a unique understanding of taxpayer needs based on our support of the IRS for more than three decades," said Tricia Belman, Managing Director, Federal Financial, Maximus. "We've worked with the IRS across a wide range of modernization and IT projects focused on improving how the public interacts with the agency. This new contract expands our role to directly support the business organization at the IRS to drive greater business value and continuous improvement of the taxpayer experience."

This BPA complements the decades-long partnership between Maximus and the IRS. Through the Consulting Services BPA, Maximus, together with the IRS, will assist in identifying, developing, and implementing the agency's modernization needs and improving services to the taxpayers and the public.

"We view our relationship with the IRS as a trusted and strategic partner, working to help improve services, increase accountability, and bolster public trust," said Larry Reagan, Senior Managing Director, Civilian, Maximus. "We're committed to our investment in the IRS and proud to support their mission in service to citizens across the country."
