Huntington Bank Wins 9th National Award for Outstanding Service to Companies

Surveys of Businesses Ranging in Size from $1 Million in Revenues to $500 Million Give Huntington Their Highest Ratings

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 7 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- The Huntington National Bank's treasury management services have been recognized by the Phoenix-Hecht Quality Index with its highest ratings for customer service. Phoenix-Hecht is one of the foremost providers of market research and education in the financial services industry.

Specifically, Huntington was given:

- A+ for the knowledge, follow-up, problem resolution and overall effectiveness of its treasury management relationship managers
- A+ for its treasury management customer service

The awards are based on surveys of 1,145 companies with revenues of $40 million to $100 million.

"Huntington has received awards in almost every major category for the past two years for its customer service to businesses," said Jim Dunlap, Huntington's Regional and Commercial Banking Director. "These awards help to make us the clear choice of small to middle market businesses."

In 2007, Huntington won four national Greenwich Associates awards for services to small businesses. The awards were granted based on surveys of 22,000 small businesses with revenues of $1 million to $10 million.

The following year, Huntington won three Greenwich awards for customer service to middle market companies with sales of $10 million to $500 million. The awards were granted based on surveys of 17,000 companies.

Greenwich Associates is a leading worldwide strategic consulting and research firm specializing in financial services. Its awards in the field of business banking are nationally respected for their survey methodology.
