Midas Funds Extends Relationship with Huntington Asset Services, Inc.

COLUMBUS, Ohio--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Huntington Asset Services, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Huntington Bancshares Incorporated (NASDAQ: HBAN; www.huntington.com), has extended its relationship with the Midas Family of Funds through March 2015. Midas has been a Huntington Asset Services client since 2002.

The Midas mutual funds invest across a variety of sectors with varying objectives: Midas Fund, Inc. (MIDSX) seeks capital appreciation and protection against inflation and, secondarily, current income and invests in the securities of companies involved in mining, processing, fabricating, and the distribution of natural resources and precious metals. Midas Perpetual Portfolio, Inc. (MPERX) seeks to preserve and increase the purchasing power value of its shares over the long term using a target asset allocation strategy. Midas Magic, Inc. (MISEX) invests aggressively for solely capital appreciation in any type of security.

"Huntington Asset Services provides investment accounting solutions, tax services, and transfer agency services to Midas, and we are excited to continue our exceptional service and strong support of them," said Joe Rezabek, president of Huntington Asset Services. "Midas chose to stay with Huntington because of our comprehensive solutions that support both their closed-end and open-end fund products. They also chose to extend the relationship because of our continuing investment in staff and technology infrastructure."

"Providing our clients with the opportunity to achieve their long term financial goals is the foundation of our business, and Huntington Asset Services has helped us provide that since 2002," said Thomas O'Malley, chief financial officer at Midas Funds. "We are proud to announce that our relationship with Huntington will continue and excited for the opportunities it will bring us in the future."
