The new notes offered are expected to be a further issuance of, and will be in addition to, the 2.487% Fixed-to-Fixed Rate Subordinated Notes due 2036 (the "original notes") that Huntington issued for cash on August 16, 2021, in the aggregate principal amount of $500 million. The early participation date was extended from 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on August 20, 2021 to 11:59 p.m. (New York City time) on September 3, 2021, the time and date the offer expires (the "extended early participation date," or, the "expiration date"). The exchange offers are being conducted on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in a confidential offering memorandum dated August 9, 2021 (the "offering memorandum").

Holders who validly tendered and did not validly withdraw old notes at or prior to 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on August 20, 2021, and whose tenders are accepted for exchange by Huntington, will receive the total exchange consideration (which includes an early participation amount of $30) for each $1,000 principal amount of old notes, as determined in accordance with the formula set forth in the offering memorandum, on the early participation settlement date, which is expected to be August 24, 2021 (the "early participation settlement date"). Holders who validly tender old notes after 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on August 20, 2021, but at or prior to the expiration date, and whose old notes are accepted for exchange by Huntington, will now also receive the total exchange consideration (which includes an early participation amount of $30). The final settlement date for old notes validly tendered after 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on August 20, 2021, but prior to the expiration date, is expected to be September 8, 2021, which is the second business day after the expiration date. The withdrawal date was not extended and any old notes validly tendered may no longer be validly withdrawn. All other terms and conditions of the exchange offers remain unchanged.

In addition, Huntington announced results as of 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on August 20, 2021. Although participants in the exchange offers will not hold new notes prior to the applicable settlement date, the first interest payment on the new notes will include the interest accrued from the issuance date of the original notes to the applicable settlement date. Further, each holder whose old notes are accepted for exchange by Huntington will receive a cash payment on the applicable settlement date representing interest, if any, that has accrued from the most recent interest payment date in respect of the applicable series of old notes, which, in the case of the 4.600% Subordinated Notes due 2025, is subject to Huntington's obligation to pay interest on the applicable interest payment date in accordance with the applicable DTC procedures, up to, but not including, the applicable settlement date, reduced (but not below zero) by the interest accrued on the new notes up to, but not including, the applicable settlement date. Cash in lieu of any fractional portions of new notes will also be paid on the applicable settlement date.

Only holders who have duly completed and submitted an eligibility letter (which may be found at <https://gbsc-usa.com/eligibility/huntington/>) will be authorized to receive the offering memorandum and participate in the exchange offers. The eligibility letter will include certifications that the holders are a "qualified institutional buyer" as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

Consummation of the exchange offers is subject to a number of conditions as set forth in the confidential offering memorandum relating to the exchange offers (including that any new notes issued on the final settlement date will be fungible with the original notes). None of Huntington, The Huntington National Bank, their boards of directors or the dealer manager makes any recommendation as to whether or not the holders of the old notes should exchange their old notes in the exchange offers.

If and when issued, the new notes will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws. Therefore, the new notes may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws. Huntington has entered into a registration rights agreement with respect to the new notes and the original notes.
