Intel Announces Satisfaction of Antitrust Clearance Condition for Proposed Acquisition of Mobileye

Tender Offer to Expire August 7, 2017

SANTA CLARA, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Intel Corporation (NASDAQ: INTC) today announced that on July 31, 2017, the Korea Fair Trade Commission approved the previously announced tender offer to purchase all of the outstanding ordinary shares of Mobileye N.V. (NYSE: MBLY). The tender offer is being made pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, dated as of March 12, 2017, by and among Intel, Cyclops and Mobileye (the "Purchase Agreement").

As a result of the approval of the tender offer from the Korea Fair Trade Commission, all required antitrust clearances have now been obtained.

Intel also announced that Intel and Mobileye have agreed that the tender offer will expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on August 7, 2017, unless the tender offer is extended or earlier terminated, in either case pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement. The tender offer was previously scheduled to expire on August 11, 2017. Mobileye shareholders are urged to tender their shares into the tender offer prior to its expiration. Mobileye shareholders who have already tendered and not withdrawn their ordinary shares of Mobileye do not have to re-tender their shares or take any other action as a result of the revision of the expiration date of the tender offer.

Completion of the tender offer remains subject to additional conditions described in the tender offer statement on Schedule TO filed by Cyclops Holdings, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Intel, with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on April 5, 2017 (as amended and supplemented, the "Schedule TO"), including that at least 67 percent of Mobileye's outstanding shares be validly tendered and not withdrawn prior to the expiration of the tender offer (including any extensions). Intel further announced that if all of the conditions to the tender offer are satisfied and the offer expires as now scheduled on August 7, 2017, then Intel anticipates that the closing of the tender offer will occur on August 8, 2017.
