Statewide Tip-A-Cop Fundraiser to Benefit Special Olympics Colorado

Red Robin teams up with law enforcement officers to support Special Olympics athletes

GREENWOOD VILLAGE, Colo., July 18 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- On Friday, July 27, 2007, from 12 to 8 p.m., local law enforcement officers will trade in their handcuffs and badges for aprons and burgers at Red Robin(R) restaurants in Colorado for the Tip-A-Cop fundraiser. During the Tip-A-Cop fundraiser, law enforcement officers will collect tips from restaurant guests to benefit Special Olympics Colorado.

Tip-A-Cop is part of the annual Law Enforcement Torch Run Campaign (LETR). LETR, which includes an international series of relay runs and special events like Tip-A-Cop, is presented by more than 85,000 law enforcement officers worldwide to raise money and public awareness for Special Olympics. LETR is the largest grassroots fundraiser and public awareness vehicle for Special Olympics where funds raised go directly to local programs in states or countries where the funds are generated.

"On behalf of Special Olympics Colorado, we would like to thank local law enforcement and Red Robin for their incredible support," said Mindy Watrous, president and chief executive officer for Special Olympics Colorado. "Efforts like these make it possible for us to continue to provide high-quality sports training programs and competitions free of charge to all Special Olympics athletes."

"We are honored to be a part of this program and to support Special Olympics Colorado," said Eric Houseman, Red Robin president and chief operating officer. "We encourage the community to join us on this special day to support Special Olympics athletes and local law enforcement here in Colorado."

Red Robin has 20 restaurants in Colorado, including locations in Colorado Springs, Littleton, Arvada, Aurora, Boulder, Broomfield, Castle Rock, Fort Collins, Grand Junction, Greeley, Greenwood Village, Highlands Ranch, Lakewood, Longmont, Loveland and Parker.
