In addition to this achievement, Cinemark is excited to see the membership program is driving moviegoers to the theatre more often, with members visiting more frequently than Cinemark's average moviegoer. Since the program's launch last December, Movie Club members have purchased 10 million tickets, and Movie Club represented 8 percent of Cinemark's Q3 domestic box office revenues. Members remain highly engaged and satisfied with a 75 percent credit redemption rate and 98 percent reporting positive satisfaction with the program.

"The popularity of Movie Club continues to grow as more of our moviegoers recognize the value that our program provides," said Mark Zoradi, Cinemark's CEO. "Features like our new gifting program have driven member acquisition and unique member benefits such as rollover tickets have driven member retention and helped us reach this impressive milestone."

For $8.99 per month, the Movie Club membership includes the following benefits:

- One 2D ticket for any show time
- Additional tickets and companion tickets
