

Company Overview

Ur-Energy is a U.S. uranium mining company focused on developing and operating in-situ recovery ("ISR") uranium projects in Wyoming. The Company owns and operates the Lost Creek ISR uranium facility in south-central Wyoming, which has produced over 3.0 million pounds of U_3O_8 since commencing production in 2013. Lost Creek's license and permits allow annual plant production of up to 2.2 million pounds of U_3O_8 , including wellfield production of up to 1.2 million pounds and toll processing of up to 1.0 million pounds.

Ur-Energy's second ISR facility, the Shirley Basin Project in Carbon County, Wyoming, is fully licensed and permitted, with construction nearly complete, positioning Shirley Basin to become the fifth ISR uranium operation in the United States.

Ur-Energy engages in the identification, acquisition, exploration, development, and operation of uranium projects. Shares of Ur-Energy trade on the NYSE American under the symbol "URG" and on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the symbol "URE." Ur-Energy's corporate headquarters is located in Casper, Wyoming, it also has an office located in Littleton, Colorado. The registered office is in Ottawa, Ontario.
