Mr. Kaplan will join other industry thought-leaders in an insightful discussion on December 6th at 10:45 a.m. Pacific Time (PT) focused on the topic of “Regulatory & Tax Reform Update & the Anticipated Impact on Retail Alternative Investments.” Among the key issues and questions to be addressed:

- The DOL fiduciary rule, its implementation and impact
- Deregulation: What to expect and when?
- With a new SEC Chairman what enforcement action to expect?
- BDCs: What’s the latest on bills to modernize rules governing this product? Will they be granted exemptive relief?
- NASAA: The latest on concentration limits and the potential impact. What other change is coming?
- FINRA: Examination priorities; 1031 compliance
- Tax reform: What is the latest and what is the potential impact on 1031 exchanges and DST deals in particular? How will a drop in tax rates affect Non-Traded REITs and other pass-through entities?

In addition to Mr. Kaplan, the distinguished speakers will include Kirk Montgomery, General Counsel & Chief Compliance Officer of CNL Credit Platform; Michael Komenda, Counsel to Cole Capital; Carl Riley of Greenberg Traurig, LLP; and C. Coy Garrison, Special Counsel, U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission. The session will be moderated by Anya Coverman, Director of Government Affairs & General Counsel at the Investment Program Association.

This year’s Western Non-Traded REIT & Retail Alternative Investment Symposium is expected bring together industry leaders to review the continued dynamic evolution and new opportunities that are opening up for the marketplace. The development of the product offering and distribution sides; implications for product sponsors, IBDs/RIAs and retail investors; and stakeholders’ preparations for change and leveraging of opportunities that emerge are just some of the crucial issues that will be explored.
